Building a Culture of Care: The Journey Towards Restorative Practices in Education

Embark on a transformative journey towards nurturing a compassionate and empathetic atmosphere in classroom management by joining the Restorative Practices: Practicing Caring Classroom Discipline Virtual Certification.

Throughout this certification, participants will acquire the essential skills to implement restorative practices within their educational environments. Dive into meaningful restorative dialogues, circles, and conferences, and enhance your comprehension of the foundational principles of restorative practices and justice.

Upon completing this Certification, attendees will be equipped with the capabilities to:

- ✓ Understand the historical roots and philosophical underpinnings of restorative practices, along with the concept of justice.
- ✓ Construct a logic model for the effective adoption of restorative practices in schools or districts.
- ✓ Differentiate and apply the various facets of restorative methodologies, including cultures, conversations, circles, and conferences.
- ✓ Offer bespoke recommendations for adopting restorative practices that cater to the unique needs of students, educators, leaders, and educational institutions.
