May/June Illinois School Board Journal

The May/June issue of the Illinois School Board Journal welcomes new school board members to the fold, and shares useful information as they set out on a journey of service. This Journal issue is one of the many ways IASB assists new board members in understanding the roles and responsibilities of a board of education member, developing leadership talents into board work skills and abilities, and advocating for public education. Also featured are articles on the importance of onboarding and a strong start, embracing educational equity, and words of wisdom from current school board members.

Online Learning: Courses, Webinars, Recordings

Online Learning

IASB has launched a new Online Learning portal to provide members with an easy, one-stop shop for online learning opportunities, including online courses, upcoming webinars, and video recordings. New board members can find and complete state-mandated training requirements, while exploring courses on other important issues such as the Open Meetings Act, Improving Student Outcomes, and Policy. All IASB members have access to regularly scheduled webinars at no additional cost, as well as video recordings on topics ranging from finance and governance to the Joint Annual Conference.
