Dr. Trevena Nelson is an experienced educational leader with twenty years of service in Cedar Hill ISD. She has held roles spanning Special Education, academic intervention, campus administration, and principal leadership. Dr. Nelson earned her Bachelor's and Master's degrees in Social Work from the University of Texas at Arlington and her Doctorate in Educational Leadership from Dallas Baptist University.

A long-standing District employee and proud mother of two Cedar Hill High School graduates, Dr. Nelson—originally from Monroe, Louisiana and raised in Southeast Dallas—brings both personal investment and professional expertise to her work. She is deeply committed to advancing student success, strengthening school-community partnerships, and supporting the holistic development of all learners.
