Jacob Hubbard

Jake, a 12th grader, is a leader in the North High School band program who identified a need and took initiative by designing and building a drum platform in the bleachers as his Eagle Scout project. This addition has been transformative, allowing the band to perform more cohesively in the stands while providing a sturdy, reliable structure with a strong visual presence.

An alto saxophone player, Jake is also deeply engaged in the arts. He has contributed artwork for concerts over the years and is a talented creative writer.
