Agenda Item: Consider Approval of Agreement with Communities in Schools (CIS) for the 2026-2027 School Year.

Summary:

Communities in Schools (CIS) is an organization that will provide support to students, and families at Furlough Middle and Terrell High Schools. The purpose of the program is to deliver social and emotional program support, risk assessment, and youth development services. The program also coordinates social services for at-risk students and their families.

As part of the agreement, CIS will place one professional staff member at each campus. These staff members will be certified in Youth Mental Health First Aid.

CIS will monitor the attendance, behavior, and academic progress of the students served by the staff. The cost for this service is $82,687.50.
