John Edmun is entering his 19th year in education. He began his career in Cypress-Fairbanks ISD as a special education teacher before moving into campus leadership in a Houston-area school district. He continued his leadership journey in Cedar Hill ISD at Permenter Middle School and Plummer Elementary and has spent the past five years serving scholars and families at Collegiate Academy and High School and the Dr. Peggy M. Wilson STEM Center.

Mr. Edmun is a proud graduate of Texas A&M University, where he earned his undergraduate degree in Special Education and a Master of Education in Special Education. He also earned a Master of Education in Educational Leadership from Prairie View A&M University and is currently completing his Doctor of Education degree at Abilene Christian University, with an anticipated graduation date of December 2026.

He is a proud father of two Collegiate High School graduates and the husband of a dedicated CHISD team member. Mr. Edmun is truly grateful for the opportunity to continue serving the Cedar Hill community as the Executive Director of Student Services. He is passionate about the work being done for scholars and deeply values the parents and families who help make that work positive and meaningful.
