~~3.~~

General Leave of Absence:

Holidays:

~~4. — An employee is eligible for paid time off on the following holidays, if those holidays fall within the employee's regular work year calendar: Independence Day (July 4), Labor Day, Thanksgiving Day, the day after Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day, the day before or after Christmas Day, New Year's Day, the day before or after New Year's Day, Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Day, Presidents' Day, Spring Break Friday, and Memorial Day and Juneteenth (June 19).~~

~~The District reserves the right, if school is in session, to cancel any of the above holidays and establish another holiday in lieu thereof. Any scheduled holiday which falls within an employee's vacation period shall not be counted as a vacation day.~~

Vacations:

An employee will initially receive twenty (20) days of vacation per year. After the completion of five (5) years, the employee will receive twenty-five (25 days) of vacation and the employee will receive thirty (30) days after the completion of ten (10) years of service in the District.

Employees accrue vacation during a particular fiscal year (July 1 to June 30). Vacation accrued as of June 30 of each year will roll over to the next school year, up to a maximum of two and one half times (2.5x) the employee's accrual rate in Article 11. The following July 1, when the new accrual is given, if the remaining days plus the new accrual amount exceeds 2.5x the accrual rate, then the excess days above 2.5x the accrual rate will be forfeited. Example, for employees who have an accrual rate of 20 days, they can never have more than 50 days in their vacation bank. If they have 35 days remaining, as of June 30th, when the new 20 days of vacation are given on July 1, the total balance would be 55 days and the five (5) excess days would be forfeited to bring the total back down to 50 days or 2.5x the accrual rate. This gives employees up to 24 months to use their vacation time.

~~Vacation accrued as of June 30 of each year must be used by January 31 of the next contract/fiscal year up to a maximum of 60 days or it will be forfeited.~~ The use of vacation days shall be subject to approval by the appropriate supervisor. An employee's daily rate of pay shall be the daily rate in place at the time the vacation is used. Upon written resignation, the employees shall be paid for unused accrued vacation per contract up to a maximum of 30 days. Vacation amounts are based on 12-month duty year assignments. Positions with work years less than 12 months or where the employee starts after July 1 or terminates prior to June 30 shall receive vacation on a prorated basis.

Jury Duty:

5. An employee who serves on jury duty will be granted the day or days necessary, as stipulated by the court to discharge this responsibility, without any salary deduction or loss of basic leave allowance. The compensation received for jury duty service shall be kept by the employee. An employer can also require their employees to provide certain documentation regarding the reason for their use of earned sick and safe time if they use it for more than two consecutive scheduled workdays.

If an employee plans to use earned sick and safe time for an appointment, preventive care or another permissible reason they know of in advance, inform their supervisor as far in advance as possible, but at least 1-7 days in advance. ### Notifying employer, documentation

An employer can require their employees to provide up to seven days of advance notice when possible (for example, when an employee has a medical appointment scheduled in advance) before using sick and safe time. An employer can also require their employees to provide certain documentation regarding the reason for their use of earned sick and safe time if they use it for more than three consecutive days.

For regular full and part-time employees scheduled at least four hours per day or more, you should refer to your employee agreement about reporting sick time off. In general, you should report your time off using the district's online time off reporting system. If an employee plans to use earned sick and safe time for an appointment, preventive care or another permissible reason they know of in advance, they should enter that time off request in the online time off system as far in advance as possible, but at least two days in advance. In situations where an employee cannot provide advance notice, the employee should, should report that absence as soon as possible and before the start of your shift if possible.

For temporary employees who typically work less than four hours per day or casual employees who do not work five days per week on a regular basis, if you need to request time off you should notify your supervisor to record the time off as far in advance as possible. If a temporary employee plans to use earned sick and safe time for an appointment, preventive care or another permissible reason they know of in advance, they should notify their supervisor as far in advance as possible, but at least two days in advance. In situations where a temporary employee cannot provide advance notice, the employee should, should report that absence to their supervisor as soon as possible and before the start of the shift that day, if possible.

Retaliation, right to file complaint

It is against the law for an employer to retaliate, or to take negative action, against an employee for using or requesting earned sick and safe time or otherwise exercising their earned sick and safe time rights under the law. If an employee believes they have been retaliated against or improperly denied earned sick and safe time, they can file a complaint with the Minnesota Department of Labor and Industry. They can also file a civil action in court for earned sick and safe time violations.
