MS/HS Principal School Board Report

April 2026

Recent Events:

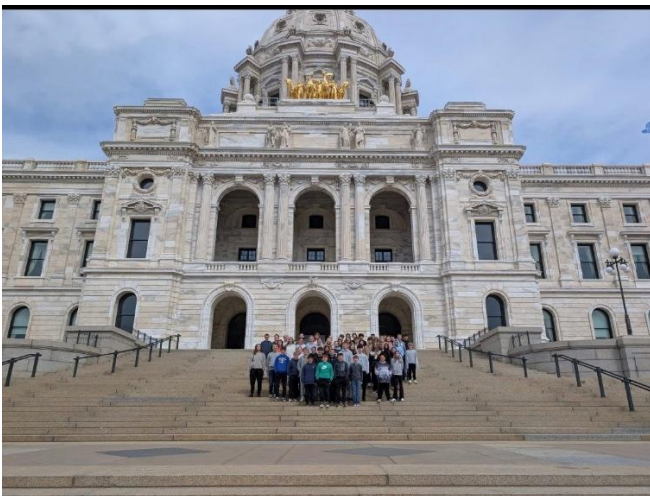

- Our school successfully hosted the Spring Musical, Sister Act Junior, with three performances held over the weekend.
- Sixth and seventh grade students were provided the opportunity to visit the state capitol, offering a valuable, real-world extension of their learning.
- We recently held our Kinder-Buddy event at the football field, which served as a meaningful and engaging experience for all participating students.
- Taher's Corporate Chef, Matt Quist, visited our school and prepared homemade "San Diego Style Burritos" for students.
- Favorite Educator Banquet was held on the evening of April 15th. Thirteen educators were honored.

Upcoming Events:

- Prom – April 25
- College, Career, and Skills Expo (PACE)

Graduation Update:

- Baccalaureate services will be held at Christ the King this year. This change was made after careful consideration, as St. Leo's Church began charging a facility use fee, while Christ the King has graciously offered the space at no cost.
