

January 2026

Central Community College Board of Governors

The College President recommends the following action.

Central Community College's Board of Governors approves the teach out of the Energy Technology program in compliance with the Higher Learning Commission's expectations for accredited institutions.