BACKGROUND INFORMATION:

Type: Action

Gregory-Portland ISD has continued to set the standard for the highest faculty and staff salaries in South Texas with a starting teacher salary of $63,000 during the 2025-2026 school-year. In addition, average hourly rates for non-exempt employees is approximately $20. per hour.

Due to forecasted financial projections, district administration is evaluating various strategies and methods of reducing re-occurring costs that will support the effort of balancing the annual budget based on anticipated local, state, and federal revenues.

RECOMMENDATION:

Option 1

Administration recommends to approve the 2026–2027 compensation plan for non-school-based administrators, which includes maintaining the current base pay (with no recurring raise to base salary) and providing a one-time pay increase of $2,500, with the payment being structured to ensure it is creditable for TRS purposes based on all applicable requirements and variables involved.

Option 2

Administration recommends to approve the 2026–2027 compensation plan for non-school-based administrators, which includes maintaining the current base pay (with no recurring raise to base salary) and providing a one-time pay increase of $3,000, with the payment being structured to ensure it is creditable for TRS purposes based on all applicable requirements and variables involved.
