

Port Orford-Langlois School District 2CJ

Code: IGDJ
Adopted: 5/10/88
Revised/Readopted: 6/8/04
Orig. Code(s): IGDJ

Interscholastic Athletics

~~It shall be the policy of the Board to require each student who chooses to participate in an interscholastic athletic program to have on file, in the office of the superintendent or other office designated by the superintendent, a certificate of consent which is signed by the parent and a completed School Sports Preparticipation Examination form, as required by law before the student starts practice. This policy shall be in effect for each student for each sports session.~~

~~The student shall also comply with district requirements relative to insurance and shall meet participation requirements set by the Oregon School Activities Association (OSAA), the league and the school administration.~~

~~Students participating in extracurricular activities, including interscholastic programs, shall be governed by the rules of the Oregon School Activities Association, where applicable. The superintendent or designee is authorized to develop and enforce additional standards of conduct, provided that such standards shall be published and distributed to all students and shall be consistently applied and enforced. At the high school, the athletic director will work with coaches and the superintendent or designee in developing a handbook for interscholastic programs. The desire of the Board is that all district programs stress similar standards of conduct. It shall be the superintendent's responsibility to see that this occurs.~~

The Board recognizes the integral role interscholastic activities¹ play in the character development and general enhancement of the education of its students. Accordingly, administrators, coaches, advisors, student participants, and others associated with the district's activities programs and events shall conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with the letter and spirit of policies, rules and regulations of the district and any associated voluntary organization². Each will be held accountable for their actions.

The district and its schools may only be members of and pay fees, if any, to a voluntary organization that administers interscholastic activities or that facilitates the scheduling and programming of interscholastic activities if the organization:

1. Implements and adheres to equity focused policies that:
 - a. Address the use of derogatory or inappropriate names, insults, verbal assaults, profanity, or ridicule that occurs at an interscholastic activity, including by spectators of the interscholastic activity;

¹ Interscholastic activities includes: for students any grade from kindergarten through grade 12, athletics, music, speech and other similar or related activities; for students in any grade from kindergarten through grade eight, activities that are offered only before or after regular school hours and that may, but are not required to, involve interaction among other schools.

² Includes a voluntary organization that administers interscholastic activities or that facilitates the scheduling and programming of interscholastic activities.

- b. Prohibit discrimination;
- c. Permit a student to wear religious clothing in accordance with the student's sincerely held religious belief and consistent with any safety and health requirements; and
- d. Balance the health, safety, and reasonable accommodation needs of participants on an activity-by-activity basis.

2. Maintains a transparent complaint process that:

- a. Has a reporting system to allow participants of interscholastic activities or members of the public to make complaints about student, coach, or spectator behavior;
- b. Responds to a complaint made within 48 hours of the complaint being received; and
- c. Resolves a complaint within 30 days of the complaint being received unless the organization determines that there is good cause to extend the timeline for resolving the complaint.

3. Develops and implements a system of sanctions against schools, students, coaches, and spectators if a complaint is verified; and

4. Performs an annual survey of students and their parents to understand and respond to potential violations of equity focused policies or other discrimination.

{³} The district shall allow homeschooled students that reside in the district, students eligible to attend school and enrolled in a high school equivalency program⁴ that reside in the district, and students who reside in the district and attend a public charter school which does not provide interscholastic activities, the opportunity to participate in available interscholastic activities when the requirements found in Oregon law are met.

Interscholastic activities when provided by the district will comply with Title IX and other nondiscrimination laws.

{⁵} [District employees, students, parents, alumni, and activity volunteers are prohibited from inducing or attempting to induce a student to attend a district school for interscholastic activity eligibility or participation. The principal, activities director, advisors and coaches are each responsible for ensuring student participants meet all district eligibility requirements of participation and those of the associated voluntary organization. The principal is responsible for ensuring accurate certification regarding the eligibility of participating students and for verifying that athletic directors, coaches of sports, and activity advisors have all required certifications prior to assuming their duties. The principal shall ensure that a program is in place to effectively evaluate the performance of all coaches and activity advisors under their supervision.

Volunteers may be approved to assist with district activities with prior approval from the principal.

The principal shall investigate all allegations of district student ineligibility, staff recruitment violations or other student or staff conduct that may violate Board policies, administrative regulations, and/or the rules and regulations of the associated voluntary organization. The principal shall notify the superintendent [or designee] of conduct that violates the terms of this policy and report to the associated voluntary organization if required.

³ {This policy content is required practice but is not required policy language.}

⁴ "High school equivalency program" means a program provided to assist a student in earning a certificate for passing an approved high school equivalency test such as the General Educational Development (GED) test.

An employee determined to have violated Board policies and/or rules and regulations of the associated voluntary organization [will] [may] be subject to discipline, up to and including, dismissal. A student in violation of Board policies and/or the rules and regulations of the associated voluntary organization will be subject to discipline, up to and including, dismissal from an interscholastic activity or program, suspension and/or expulsion from school. Volunteers in violation of Board policies and/or the rules and regulations of the associated voluntary organization shall be subject to discipline, up to and including, removal from district programs and activities and such other sanctions as may be deemed appropriate by the district.

Employees, volunteers, or students in violation of such policies, rules and/or regulations [will] [may] be required to remunerate the district in the event fines are assessed as a result of their actions.

The superintendent will develop procedures, as necessary, to implement this policy, including a process to ensure that all district rules governing the conduct of students, staff, and volunteers engaged in district activities are regularly reviewed and updated.

The district will annually review interscholastic activities and participation to determine whether the current offerings reflect the students the district serves.]
