Board Members,

Please see the report for February 9, 2026

Student Achievement and Well Being

- Laker Pantry received a freezer donated by a fundraiser held by the PTA
- Laker Pantry received a donation of $2,500 from the PTA donated to them during the Fund the Freezer fundraiser.
- Laker Pantry has served many families in the past month, students are visiting more regularly and getting what they need as well as frozen items to pair with other offerings (rice, pasta, canned goods) thanks to the new freezer. They remain grateful for the assistance.
- Snow Fest Candidates were crowned 2/2/26: Jesus Gutierrez, Valerian Three Irons, Kade Christopherson, Raydon Graham, Faith Holmers, Juli Peterson, Ash Grosshuesch, Sophie Salmela
- South Point Budget City event held 2/4/26, always a great experience for students.

Effective Resource Management

- Reading/ELA Curriculum committee met and are working their way through resources and options.
- Facility Assessment meeting held, outlined HS spaces/needs.

Family Partnership and Community Engagement

- . I served on the regional Triple A selection committee, it was a great experience and I'm already signed up to do it again next year.

Staff Development and Support

- I'll be attending the MNCATE conference on February 13 with hopes of bringing back new ideas and opportunities to share with the team.
