La Vernia ISD...Uncompromising Excellence, Unlimited Possibilities

Dr. Hensley Cone, Superintendent

Action Agenda Sheet

Date: July 20, 2026

Subject: Texas A&M AgriLife Extension – Wilson and Guadalupe Counties 4-H Administrator

Responsible: Ms. Margaret Bray, Executive Director of Assessment, Accountability, and Student Programs

A. Purpose of Agenda Item:

Information/Report only	☒ Action needed
-------------------------	---

B. District Goal:

1. Provide opportunities for all students to become College, Career, and Military Ready Graduates
4. Engage in Transparent and Highly Effective Communication with Students, Staff, Parents and Community Members

- C. Summary: Recognition of the Texas A&M AgriLife 4H Club as an “extracurricular activity” will allow student absences for these activities to count as “extracurricular” for Foundation School Purposes and require the “no pass no play” eligibility rule to apply. Finally, approving this resolution will qualify the Texas A&M AgriLife 4H Faculty as LVISD Adjunct Faculty Members, after these individuals meet the State requirements for public school employees.

- D. Budgetary Impact: None

E. Administrative Recommendation:

Move to approve the Texas A&M AgriLife 4H Club – Wilson and Guadalupe Counties as an extracurricular activity, as presented.
