Background Information:

Board Policy BDB (LOCAL) allows for the creation of a Board committee by Board action, which shall specify the number of committee members, the process to appoint members to the committee, the term of committee membership, and the responsibilities of the committee.

- Number of committee members: 2
- Appointment process: Committee members shall be appointed by action of the Board. A committee member who is unable to complete his or her term may be replaced with another member by action of the Board President.
- Term of membership: Per BDB (LOCAL), all committee members shall be limited to 1- year terms that may be renewed annually by the Board in May of each year.
- Responsibilities: The committee will evaluate the future use of district properties each school year. Proposed uses of district properties shall be presented to the full Board for discussion and approval.

Administrative Considerations:

- The Superintendent will provide feedback to the Committee regarding the administrative burden or requirements of any proposed uses of district properties.

Communication Deployment:

- Board Meeting Minutes
- The committee shall periodically report to the full Board the status of evaluations of future use of Keller ISD properties.
