

Purchasing Programs

As the federal government's purchasing agent, GSA connects federal purchasers with the most cost-effective and high-quality commercial products and services. Find out how to purchase the products and services you need from thousands of commercial vendors, or learn how to sell products to federal agencies and employees.

Getting Started

Learn more about federal acquisition of products and services.

- How to buy through GSA
- How to sell to the government

Assisted Acquisition

Plan, direct and manage your complex acquisitions needs through the Assisted Acquisition program, which provides access to key GSA resources.

- Federal Systems Integration and Management Center \(FEDSIM\)

GSA Fleet

Lease vehicles for federal agencies through GSA's full-service, professional fleet-management organization.

GSA Travel Programs

Who is eligible to purchase from GSA Advantage?

States, counties, municipalities, cities, towns, townships, tribal governments, public authorities, school districts, colleges and other institutions of higher education, council of governments, regional or interstate governments, or any agency or instrumentality of the preceding entities, and legislative or judicial departments.

What do I have the authority to purchase on GSA Advantage?

Cooperative Purchasing: Supplies and services can be purchased directly from two Schedules. Schedule 70 to purchase Information Technology supplies and services, and Schedule 84 to purchase supplies and services related to any aspect of law enforcement, security, facility management systems, fire, rescue, special purpose clothing, marine craft, and emergency/disaster response.

Disaster Purchasing: Supplies and services can be purchased directly from Schedule contractors to aid in disaster preparation and response or to facilitate recovery from a major disaster, terrorism or nuclear, biological, chemical, or radiological attack.

Using GSA Advantage

- To purchase on GSA Advantage, a State or Local government issued credit card for payment must be used. No other form of payment is accepted.
- The State or Local government ordering activity is responsible for ensuring that only authorized representatives of their organization place orders, that orders are placed under the appropriate program scope, and that the supplies and/or services purchased will be used for state/local governmental purposes only.
- Orders placed on GSA Advantage will be sent to the GSA contractor who will ship and/or perform service, then bill your card. GSA does not ship merchandise nor will GSA bill your card.
- All order/billing problems and/or discrepancies must be addressed directly with the contractor.
- Businesses have the option of rejecting orders placed by State and Local government buyers.

Technology Programs

Purchase customized IT hardware, software, and services and support for federal, state and local governments.

- Governmentwide Acquisition Contracts \(GWACs\)
- MAS Information Technology
- Telecommunications and Network Services
- Software Purchase Agreements
- USAccess: Identity, Credentials, and Access Management

Requisition Programs

GSA offers quick access to a broad range of common consumables, like office and industrial supplies, through requisition programs that entail government-to-government (G2G) transactions and guaranteed compliance with purchasing regulations.

- GSA Global Supply
- GSA Retail Operations