Congratulations to Ethan Fenning, Brayden McKinney, Tatum Peterson, Miranda Johnson, Abigail Smith, and Zaleyan Parise for qualifying for the state competition for History Day.

Thank you to Traci Kapella-Kasper for her work on the SEL (Social Emotional Learning) Community Practices Grant - which has been awarded to Northland Community Schools for 2020-21

from MDE's website:

The Minnesota Department of Education makes this funding available to support suicide prevention through schoolwide social emotional learning (SEL), which supports meaningful relationships, coping skills and safe and supportive communities. Schoolwide SEL integrates academic, social, and emotional learning across all school contexts and promotes equitable outcomes for all students. MDE invites Minnesota school districts and charter schools to apply to the Social Emotional Learning Communities of Practice in order to build knowledge and capacity to install, implement and sustain schoolwide SEL.

Thank you to all staff, for working so hard to make distance learning and meal delivery work

Congratulations to valedictorian Logan Monroe and Salutatorian Cameron Wake

Congratulations to Logan Monroe for receiving the National 25 under 25 Native Youth Leaders Award

This national recognition program honors Native American and Alaskan Native American youth leaders under age 25 who exemplify UNITY's core mission and exudes living a balanced life developing their spiritual, mental, physical and social well-being.
