A school board may close a meeting to evaluate the performance of an individual who is subject to its authority. The school board must identify (and notify) the individual to be evaluated before closing the meeting. A meeting must be open at the individual's request.* If the evaluation is closed, at the next open meeting, the school board must give a detailed summary of its conclusions regarding the evaluation. This closed meeting must be electronically recorded at school district expense. The recording must be preserved for at least three years after the meeting date. The recording is not available to the public.
