Neither the Agency nor the Registrar shall make a charge for the first such exchange or registration of transfer of any Note by any Owner. The Agency or the Registrar, or both, may make a charge for shipping, printing and out-of-pocket costs for every subsequent exchange or registration of transfer of such Note sufficient to reimburse it or them for any and all costs required to be paid with respect to such exchange or registration of transfer. Neither the Agency nor the Registrar shall be required to make any such exchange or registration of transfer of any Note during the period between a Record Date and the corresponding Interest Payment Date.

Section 3.8. Ownership of Note. As to any Note, the person in whose name the same shall be registered shall be deemed and regarded as the absolute owner thereof for all purposes, and payment of or on account of the principal of or interest on such Note shall be made only to or upon the order of the Owner thereof or his legal representative. All such payments shall be valid and effectual to satisfy and discharge the liability upon such Note, including the interest thereon, to the extent of the sum or sums so paid.

Section 3.9. Disposition and Destruction of Note. The Note, upon surrender to the Registrar for final payment, whether at maturity or upon earlier redemption, shall be canceled upon such payment by the Registrar and, upon written request of the Finance Director, be destroyed.

Section 3.10. Mutilated, Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Note. If any such Note has matured, is about to mature or has been called for redemption, instead of delivering a substitute Note, the Agency may pay the same without surrender thereof. Upon the issuance of any substitute Note, the Agency may require the payment of an amount by the Owner sufficient to reimburse the Agency for any tax or other governmental charge that may be imposed in relation thereto and any other reasonable fees and expenses incurred in connection therewith.

Section 3.11. Non-presentment of Note. If any Note is not presented for payment when the principal thereof becomes due and payable as therein and herein provided, whether at the stated maturity thereof or call for optional or mandatory redemption or otherwise, if funds sufficient to pay such Note have been made available to the Registrar all liability of the Agency to the Owner thereof for the payment of such Note shall forthwith cease, determine and be completely discharged, and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Registrar to hold such funds, without liability for interest thereon, for the benefit of the Owner of such Note, who shall thereafter be restricted exclusively to such funds for any claim of whatever nature on their part under this Resolution or on, or with respect to, said Note. If any Note is not presented for payment within five years following the date when such Note becomes due, the Registrar shall repay to the Agency the funds theretofore held by it for payment of such Note, and such Note shall, subject to the defense of any applicable statute of limitation, thereafter be an unsecured obligation of the Agency, and the Registered Owner thereof shall be entitled to look only to the Agency for payment, and then only to the extent of the amount so repaid to it by the Registrar, and the Agency shall not be liable for any interest thereon and shall not be regarded as a trustee of such money.

York Parks & Recreation Annual Summary

October 1, 2024 – September 30, 2025

York Parks and Recreation had another impactful year, serving thousands of residents and visitors through its programs, facilities, and community spaces. Across every department — from the museum to the ballfields — our work continues to reflect the pride, connection, and quality of life that make York a great place to live, work, and play.

A Year of Activity and Growth

This year, our facilities remained vibrant gathering places for recreation, wellness, and community engagement. The Community Center saw over 39,000 membership check-ins, alongside more than 1,500 rentals and strong participation in 98 programs. The Family Aquatic Center welcomed over 13,500 patrons with 548 memberships sold and a highly trained seasonal team ensuring a safe and fun summer.

Athletic complexes like the Ballpark and Soccer Complex continued to thrive, hosting hundreds of local games and tournaments that draw families and visitors to York each weekend. The Auditorium remained a busy hub for events and activities, while our parks system provided hundreds of rental opportunities and daily spaces for residents to connect, play, and recharge.

The Anna Bemis Palmer Museum expanded York's cultural footprint through three exhibits and multiple programs that celebrated our community's history and creativity.

Investing in Community

Behind every number is a dedicated team of full-time, part-time, and seasonal staff who take pride in maintaining clean, safe, and welcoming spaces. Their commitment ensures that York Parks and Recreation not only operates efficiently but also creates experiences that strengthen community bonds.

Looking Ahead

As we move forward, York Parks and Recreation remains focused on its mission — to enhance quality of life through recreation programming, fitness opportunities, and outdoor exploration. We will continue to invest in our people, programs, and facilities to ensure that every resident can find their place to play, grow, and belong.

Respectfully submitted,

Cheree Folts

*Note – I would not recommend sealed bid sale of these items, as they are defensive weapons and related accessories. We recently assisted with training in a smaller department who utilizes these older models and I'd like to draft a memorandum of transfer and donate these items to that department. This municipality will have policies and liability documentation in place directly related to Tasers and their use, and we know from experience that this department is professionally trained and certified.
