Instructional Focus: Celebrate the season!

AES has spent the month of December getting ready for the holidays! Our younger students wrote letters to Santa and are having extra fun learning about other holidays around the world. Many of our students participated in the Christmas parade including our NEHS students representing AES.

Mrs. DeLaCruz and Mrs. Campbell hosted a Title III Parent Night on December 7, at the high school. Our English Language Learners' parents from all three campuses were invited to attend. We had a great turnout as the campuses work to support our English Learners and their families.

Next week, our campus will be having dress up fun each day of the week. Each grade level will be celebrating the season with class parties.

PBIS is coming!!

We have seen an increase in behaviors across the campus in the last weeks. Our teams and counselors are working hard to meet students' needs.

As the campus is moving toward PBIS, we are also looking at ways to support our students with positive family involvement. AES admin and counselors are planning parent information sessions and supports for the spring semester. Stay tuned to learn how not only the school but community can support our students' mental health needs.
