Summer Reading List

Excellence In Education

A Message to Parents...

Dear Parents and Guardians:

Greetings from the Central Office.

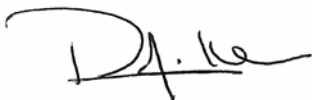

The attached 2008 Summer Reading List has been compiled through the collaborative efforts of many individuals, including the Madison Public Schools' library media specialists and staff, language arts / English coordinators and teachers, reading consultants, and Jane Ash, Children's Librarian and Chris Angeli, Young Adult Librarian from Scranton Memorial Library. All have been truly dedicated to developing a compelling list of titles, which we hope will appeal to all age groups.

As always, the Summer Reading List is a roster of suggested titles, except where noted. All those involved in its development acknowledge that the list of titles, although covering a wide variety of genre, is limited. We do not intend to discourage students' sampling of other books or magazines and periodicals not on the list. Please feel free to suggest additional titles for students to read, and don't hesitate to ask librarians or representatives from local book stores for assistance in recommending more titles. Everyone is ready to do the utmost to help young people develop a love of reading.

This year's list contains "mini-lists" including librarian picks, student favorites, and selected titles from Connecticut authors. Books available in audio format at Scranton Library are also noted. In addition, a list of the Nutmeg Award nominees and winners is included. In January, students may vote for their favorite nominee to win the coveted state award. These titles were selected by the Connecticut Nutmeg Committee.

Together, as in the past, we can make reading an integral part of our young people's lives. Best wishes for an enjoyable and relaxing summer being transformed by these wonderful books. Should you like to explore reading lists for other grades, visit the Madison Public Schools' website at www.madison.k12.ct.us.

Sincerely,

David J. Klein
Superintendent

2008 Summer Reading List Grades K-4

General Instructions

On the following pages is the suggested Summer Reading List for students entering Grades K-4 in the fall of 2008. Books used for core instruction during the school year are not on this list. Students are encouraged to read at least five books this summer. A selected book may be one that can be read by the child, with the child, or to the child.

While the summer reading list should serve as a guide, reading need not be limited to these titles. If the suggested book title is not available, try another by the same author. Additional authors are also listed. Please remember that each child's reading ability varies; therefore, you are welcome to choose a title from another grade level if it seems appropriate. The library media specialists, classroom teachers, and reading teachers in each school, as well as the children's librarian at Scranton Library, will be happy to assist you and your child in choosing the best books for you to read to your child or for your child to read independently. Scranton Library has several resources (listed below) that may help you find a particular book. A list of periodicals is also included as part of this summer reading packet. Students are encouraged to enjoy this form of reading as well. Additional reading lists are available online at www.madison.k12.ct.us, at your child's school web site, at Scranton Library, and at local book stores.

It is expected that students will complete the recording sheet for grades K-4 found at the end of the list. Please return the sheets to the school's library media specialist in September.

2008 Summer Reading List Grades 9-12

General Instructions

On the following pages is the suggested Summer Reading List for students entering Grades 9-12 in the fall of 2008. Students must read at least four books this summer. At least one of the four books must come from this list in order to comply with the assessments in English class (see below). While the summer reading list should serve as a guide, reading need not be limited to these books except for one title that must come from this list. We have also included suggested authors in each list. If the suggested title is not available, try another by the same author. A magazine that you read regularly throughout the summer or any graphic novel you read will be considered one of the free choice works. Graphic novels can be found in the Teen Department of Scranton Library. You will find a list of suggested periodicals below.

Students in Selected AP Courses

Students taking AP U. S. History, AP Psychology, AP European History / Western Civilization, and AP English have special summer reading requirements. You will find a separate list of readings for those courses at the end of the section for Grades 11 and 12.

English Assessments

Each student is expected to complete summer reading before school begins. When you begin your English class, your teacher will provide instructions and guidance for the summer reading assessment activities during the first few days of class. You are encouraged to prepare yourself for this assessment by keeping notes. The following guidelines may be useful in taking notes on the summer reading or you may wish to utilize a journal (see below).

1. There are several problems or conflicts that develop in this book. Choose one conflict that stands out and explain why you think it is important.
2. Choose one short but significant passage from the book and write it out. Explain why you think it is significant; discuss what it says about the characters in the story as well as about people in general.
3. Relate the story or novel to other characters in literature, to events or people in real life, or to situations (real or imaginary), such as those in films or on television.

A Journal

What is a journal?

Journals are tools used by many readers to assist them in taking notes about their reading. Think of your journal as a personal record of your interaction with the selections.

What, When, and How to write?

Use your journal to record personal reactions, your thoughts, feelings, and experiences. Critical reading of literature should help you to contemplate human motivation. You should understand how attitudes, feelings, and beliefs govern the characters' actions and behavior. Try to write in your journal right after you do some reading. Think on paper without worrying about the mechanics of writing. Use language that expresses your personal voice – language that is natural to you.

Also present: David Klein, Superintendent; Anita Rutlin, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment; district administrators; faculty; staff; students; community members.

3. School Community Session

Recognition: Public School Volunteer Week.

Chairman Hale stated that April 17-23, 2008 is Public School Volunteer Week and Mr. Klein announced that members of the Parents' Representatives Council were in the audience by invitation of the Board to be recognized for their volunteer activities. He thanked them, on behalf of all the volunteers in our schools, for all the hard work and time they donate to the schools. Mr. Klein stated that their efforts go far beyond fund raising, and they provide a great deal of support to the students and staff of the Madison Public Schools. PRC members Lisa Rollins, Janice Florentine and Ann Marino were in attendance. They were presented with Certificates of Appreciation for each school's PTO and the Daniel Hand High School APTS group signed by Mr. Klein and Chairman Hale.

3.2. Public Participation

Mr. Rick Flanders, 553 Durham Road, raised questions regarding the Athletics budget, specifically ice hockey expenses and student registration fees. Craig Semple, Director of Athletics, explained that the costs associated with ice rental are subsidized by parents and that registration fee dollars support expansion of the Athletics Program.

Mr. Flanders also asked for an explanation of MAPAC. Chairman Hale cited the Sailing Club at Daniel Hand High School as a new program recently implemented through the MAPAC process.

4. Board of Education Student Representatives' Report

Emma Norris reported that the second annual College Fair is scheduled for Thursday, April 24th in the Daniel Hand High School Dining and Assembly Hall. This is a great opportunity for juniors and their parents to learn about different colleges. More than 100 colleges and universities will be represented.

Ms. Norris reported on Earth Day events at Daniel Hand High School. There was a banner in the dining and assembly hall and a Power Point presentation ran during all lunch waves. Both were created by the Environmental Club and were appreciated and enjoyed by the other students.

Mr. Presti reported that the Junior Prom is being held on Friday, April 26th in the Dining and Assembly Hall from 7:30 – 11:00 pm. Students are working in conjunction with Safe Rides and SMASH to keep prom goers safe and remind them of the dangers of drinking and driving. A student created assembly is being held during 2nd period on Friday morning to address the junior class about being safe on prom night.

Chairman Hale asked Mr. Presti if he was a member of the newly formed Sailing Club. Mr. Presti responded that he is; the club is out and sailing and they practice most days (weather permitting).

5. Superintendent's Report

5.1. Information Share: Second Annual Environment Gift from the Madison Land Conservation Trust to Michael Docker and John Gaskell, Daniel Hand High School Science Teachers.

Mr. Klein introduced Joseph Oslander, David Skelly and Michael Maloney of the Madison Land Conservation Trust. Mr. Oslander stated that he felt Earth Day was the perfect day to make this presentation. He spoke to the fact that many of the issues of the first Earth Day in 1970 are still relevant today and he is pleased to see professionals in the Madison Public Schools working with students to teach them about environmental issues they need to be aware of. Mr. Oslander complimented the grass roots work of Mr. Docker and Mr. Gaskell, and was pleased to present the Madison Land Conservation Trust's Environment Gift for Mr. Docker's Marine Science and Technology course and Mr. Gaskell's Principles of Ecology course.

5.2. Information Share: Daniel Hand High School, First Place Winner of the Michael's Achievement Cup in Class L Sports

Mr. Klein reported on this award given to Daniel Hand High School for excellence in athletics, and stated that a presentation banquet will be held on April 27th. He stated that this award speaks to the quality of the programs and the student athletes – their citizenship and sportsmanship – in Madison Public Schools. Mr. Semple stated that it was a great honor to receive this award. He reiterated that this was not an award based on wins and losses but on the quality of the overall program. Mr. Semple went on to say that this is a tribute to the student athletes and coaches, who always strive for excellence.

5.3. Update on Tiger Fitness Center

Mr. Klein asked Mr. Semple to give an update on the Tiger Fitness Center.

Mr. Semple stated that the center has been open for a little more than one year and is very popular with students; they are proud of the fitness center and highly motivated to utilize it. The center is open from 2:30 to 4:30 p.m. Monday – Friday and there are two certified staff members at the facility (one from the high school and one from the middle school). Teams can use the center outside of those normal operating hours as long as they are supervised by a Coach. The center is used every day by students, teachers and coaches.

Mr. Semple reported that a study conducted by the Athletics Department shows that from January to date there have been 3,000 visits to the fitness center. He added that it is used by every team at the high school and middle school level, as well as for some academic courses (physiology, anatomy and even Odyssey of the Mind). He also stated that he is working with the Beach and Recreation Department to try to develop summer programs at the fitness center. Mr. Semple reported that the service contract for equipment maintenance is due to expire soon, and he is researching vendors to provide this service.

Mr. Semple then asked Emma Norris to share her feeling about the fitness center with the Board, since she uses it on a regular basis. Ms. Norris stated that the fitness center is an amazing place; it is a clean, fun environment and she loves using it every day. She stated that the staff is very helpful and the center is accepting of all types of athletes, who are able to work out side by side. Ms. Norris stated that using the fitness center on a daily basis has definitely enhanced her athletic ability.

Atty. Sellers asked for more information about the summer program that is being developed. Mr. Semple responded that they are planning three separate sessions focusing on different areas (agility, strength, etc.) and it will be open to anyone interested. He stated that the plans should be finalized by the end of May.

Ms. Coffey asked if most students using the center work with their coaches to develop individualized programs. Mr. Semple replied that most students seem to follow some type of program, whether developed by a coach, an outside individual such as a trainer, or the student him/herself.

Chairman Hale asked if after one year of use, there were any modifications that Mr. Semple sees should be made. Mr. Semple responded that he does have some ideas that he will bring to the May 1st Planning Committee Meeting.

Mr. Klein stated that there are plans in future is to solicit advice from an industry professional regarding the set up and lay out of the equipment.

6. Board Member Comments

Chairman Hale reported that he had attended the April 4th production of South Pacific and it was an outstanding production.

Chairman Hale also stated that he had visited Stop & Shop on Saturday to participate in the Daniel Hand High School Environment Club's bag exchange. By dropping off ten plastic bags, participants received one cloth bag free. Chairman Hale complimented the Environmental Club for their efforts in support of a very worthwhile cause.

Ms. Gowanlock suggested that it would help the environment if more students would ride the school bus to Daniel Hand High School. The buses go there every day regardless of the number of students riding, and it would be environmentally conscience for students to use them rather than driving themselves or having their parents drive them. Ms. Gowanlock wondered if there was a way to generate interest among the high school students to “go green by riding yellow”.

7. Distribution of Executive Summaries from Board Committees/Liaisons

7.1. Planning Committee

Ms. Frey reported that the Committee has been meeting to discuss elementary space utilization. The committee has been working with the elementary principals and will continue to explore how to best meet the needs for grades K-4. The committee is currently exploring one three building model and two different four building models. Two of the proposed models are ‘neighborhood school’ models. The three building model would consist of reopening Academy School and having Academy, Jeffrey and Ryerson schools all house grades K-4. The Pre-K program would be housed at Jeffrey School.

The first four building model would consist of housing the Pre-K and Kindergarten programs at Island Avenue School, and having Academy, Jeffrey and Ryerson each house grades 1-4. The four building ‘neighborhood school’ model would consist of Jeffrey and Ryerson Schools housing Kindergarten through Grade 4; the “southern campus” would be comprised of Island Avenue School (K-2) and Academy School, (Grades 3-4).

The elementary principals favor the four building neighborhood school model, and Ms. Frey stated that this appears to be the most cost effective use of facilities. She said the next step will be to hire a consultant to study the data and cost effectiveness of the different models. Ms. Frey further stated that the four building neighborhood school approach would not alter the programs at what would be the Island Avenue / Academy School campus. She also stated there are pros and cons to all options and the Committee and the elementary principals are working to find the best solution for the district.

Mr. Klein reiterated that these are program driven models and would make for an equitable distribution of the population in the short term and the long term.

Ms. Gowanlock raised a concern about managing the Kindergarten program in three different buildings. Ms. Frey replied that the plans do include full day kindergarten.

Chairman Hale asked to add to the agenda a report from Bill Clorite, Chairman of the Island Avenue School Building Committee.

Mr. Clorite reported that the Committee had met twice already and have solicited bids for the boiler replacement. They met with the low bidder on April 21st and will meet again on Thursday, April 24th. If all goes well, the Committee hopes to make recommendation to the Board of Selectmen to approve the vendor at their meeting on Monday, April 28th. The asbestos removal will be done over a two week period. It’s crucial to make a commitment soon to a vendor for the boiler replacement because there is a 6-8 week lead time for the boiler itself. Barring any unforeseen issues, the vendor is confident that the boiler replacement can be completed in advance of the first day of school.

7.2. Personnel Committee

Mr. Dean reported that the next contract negotiation will be with the AMA and must commence by July 18th. The process will begin soon.

7.3. Policy Committee

Ms. Gowanlock reported that the Committee had met earlier in the evening. They have begun discussing revisions to our existing policy on student exchange programs and have started researching some points relating to the policy. She also reported that the Committee is ready to move Policy #4160, Student Activity – Transportation / Vehicles be adopted. This policy deals with teachers, coaches or parents transporting students to extracurricular events. Ms. Gowanlock stated that transporting students in this manner is the least desirable method and would only happen as a last resort, but a policy and guidelines need to be in place in the event that it occurs.

Ms. Frey commented that she was glad that the district is looking into opportunities for students to participate in exchange programs. Ms. Gowanlock responded that there are a lot of issues involved with students participating in travel / exchange programs, but it will be good to have a current policy in place.

7.4. Finance Committee

Ms. Coffey reported that we are 'in the black' for the current year's budget and accounts are being monitored closely, especially Special Education and the Legal expense account.

Ms. Coffey next reported that the Board of Finance had met the night before and voted to reduce the Board of Education budget by an additional $50,000. Preliminary discussion ensued about where these cuts should come from. No decisions have been made as of yet, but some possible areas that might be affected are extracurricular activities at the middle school level and the Board's Community Outreach Committee. Mr. Klein reported that he had already spoken with middle school principals Frank Henderson and Julie Phelps and they were both confident that the extracurricular programs at their respective schools could still operate with nominal student fees. Mr. Klein also stated that he was meeting with the Administrative Council on April 23rd and would discuss the additional reductions with them.

Atty. Sellers commented that she appreciated that the additional reductions appear to be chosen to minimize the effect of the reductions on classrooms.

Chairman Hale said that while discussions would continue, the suggested reductions were a good starting point.

7.5. Community Outreach Committee

Atty. Klaskin reported that the April 7th breakfast at Daniel Hand High School was the highest attended Community Outreach event to date. He thanked the students and staff of Daniel Hand for a wonderful time and reported that all who attended enjoyed seeing the students and the school in action.

Atty. Klaskin reported that the next and final Community Outreach breakfast for this year will be held on Friday, May 9th at the Kathleen H. Ryerson Elementary School. This event is open to the public and Atty. Klaskin encouraged community members to attend. The discussion topic for this event is the RtI (Response to Intervention) Model with allows for individualized attention to all students.

7.6. LEARN Liaison

Mr. Dean reported that he had been to two meetings so far. He gave a brief overview of LEARN for the new Board members, explaining that LEARN is one of six Regional Educational Service Organizations in Connecticut, serving 24 shoreline districts.

8. Audience Response to Information Presented

Mr. Rick Flanders again addressed the Board stating that he didn't think budget cuts should be made to the middle school extracurricular program. His opinion is that these extracurricular activities should be run much the same as athletics, with participants paying a fee. Ms. Gowanlock stated that the Board's position is that charging registration fees for these programs is preferable to not having the programs at all. The interest is there and the one of the Board's goals is to improve after school activities for our students and make them happen somehow.

Mr. Klein stated that the suggested budget cuts are not to say there is no value in the program and all involved hope the programs will continue. He thanked Mr. Flanders for his comments and said there was no lack of commitment to what he was saying.

10. Action Item: Minutes of April 1, 2008 Board of Education Meeting

MOTION: by Coffey, seconded by Dean to approve the minutes of the April 1, 2008 Board of Education meeting.

Ms. Coffey stated that there was an error in Item 7.3. of the minutes regarding the boiler replacement at Island Avenue Elementary School. The minutes as presented read that this project was now part of Planned and Cycled Maintenance. The minutes should reflect that the project is now part of LOCAP.

14. Old Business

15. New Business

- Chairman Hale stated that he wished to add to the agenda that he and David Klein had attended a meeting the previous evening with the Madison Property Owner's Association to answer questions raised by some members at the last public hearing. Both Chairman Hale and Mr. Klein said the meeting was very cordial and they addressed many questions. They felt members of the MPOA appreciated their attendance at the meeting and their willingness to answer questions. Chairman Hale further stated that he does not believe the real issue with this group is the Board of Education budget – it is senior citizen tax relief.

Mr. Klein stated that he was not sure they changed the opinion of anyone from the MPOA but he sensed an appreciation that their questions were heard. He also stated that a member of the MPOA said that they think the Board of Education does an excellent job of developing the budget and they are supportive of the process if not necessarily the dollars. Mr. Klein expects this dialog to be ongoing.

- Textbook Adoption Preview (April 22 – May 6, 2008)
 - Precalculus With Limits
Houghton Mifflin Publisher
Daniel Hand High School Precalculus
 - The Practice of Statistics
Bedford, Freeman & Worth Publishing Group
Daniel Hand High School Advanced Placement Statistics

Ms. Rutlin stated that these books will be available for review in the Central Office for the next two weeks.

- Chairman Hale stated that the Board of Education Retreat tentatively scheduled for April 26, 2008 will be canceled due to not all Board members being available. He will suggest some dates and try to find one in the near future that works for everyone.

Mr. Ruggiero commented that he was very impressed after the budget presentations with the lack of bitterness between sides. He said there is a real willingness from all parties to discuss the budget and no one group has an agenda. He was glad that Chairman Hale and Mr. Klein made the outreach to the Madison Property Owners Association.

Ms. Gowanlock reiterated Mr. Ruggiero's comments and stated it was commendable for Chairman Hale and Mr. Klein to attend the MPOA meeting. She also stated that while $50,000 is a fair dent to the Board of Education's budget, it computes to approximately .1 mil, or a difference of only $30 - $40 in annual tax savings for the average homeowner in Madison.

16. Future Agenda Items

17. Meetings of Importance

Chairman Hale referred to the list of upcoming meetings on the Board agenda. He stated that the Board of Finance meeting listed for April 24, 2008 has been canceled.
