V. PRESENTATIONS

J. Thompson will present his material during the Superintendent's Report.

VI. PUBLIC/PTO COMMENTS

A. Public/PTO comments

Cindy Harrison-Odum of Bloomfield presented her concern about the possible Bloomfield High School graduation date and venue change. This affects family travel plans and the number of family members attending the graduation ceremony. She requested the board members take these concerns under consideration when determining the graduation date and venue.

B. Student Representative Report

S. Peart stated recent activities at the High School included a fund raiser for a fellow student, 8th graders visited the high school, seniors are enthusiastically looking forward to their Senior Prom and the majority of the student athletes are on the honor roll. Next month the 2011-2012 student representatives will be introduced.

VII. SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

A. Financial Report

D. Munsell reviewed the Budget Projection Report. It is a conservative projection of the remainder of the 2010-2011 year. Bottom line, there is no anticipated concern about monies through year end.

B. Superintendent's 100 Day Entry Plan

J. Thompson stated his objectives are to gather information about the community, school organization and establish a strong community presence. With the primary goal of IMPROVING STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT, organizational strengths, challenges and critical issues will be assessed and used to develop a measurable and meaningful strategic plan.

VIII. OLD BUSINESS

No old business was presented.

IX. NEW BUSINESS

A. Summer School 2011/PowerPoint Presentation

J. Thompson with S. Way presented the Summer School 2011 information. A four week summer school will be in session for grades K through 7. There will be mandated students and the program will also be opened to others, if space permits. There will be an individualized approach assessing each student pre and post session. Attendance will be tracked. Transportation (based on current policies), nursing coverage, and breakfast and lunch will be provided.

B. Last Day of School for 2010-2011

A motion was made by D. Seldon and seconded by D. Dale that the Bloomfield Board of Education approve Monday, June 20, 2011 as the last day of school for 2010-2011. The motion was passed unanimously.
