A. Connecticut Learning Hub

Ms. Lisa Lamenzo, Director of School Improvement, provided a high-level overview of the resources offered by the Connecticut Learning Hub and how it benefits our Bloomfield community. This is a free resource provided by the Connecticut State Department of Education. It provides universal access to resources that have been vetted and are also aligned to the state standards. Some resources include curricula, professional development, websites, and networking. The Connecticut Learning Hub is for educators, families and students.

F. Bogle-Assegai inquired how the district plans to educate families about this resource. L. Lamenzo mentioned this will be communicated to families through the principals' communications, PTO meetings, and our District Coordinator of Extended Learning and Family Community Engagement. Dr. Thompson noted this can also be highlighted in his weekly communications.
