TITLE IX

Sexual harassment affects a student's ability to learn and an employee's ability to work. Providing an educational and workplace environment free from sexual harassment is an important district goal. The district does not discriminate on the basis of sex in any of its education programs or activities, and it complies with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) and its implementing regulations (34 C.F.R. Part 106) concerning everyone in the district's education programs and activities, including applicants for employment, students, parents/guardians, employees, and third parties.

TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT PROHIBITED

Sexual harassment as defined in Title IX (Title IX Sexual Harassment) is prohibited. Any person, including a district employee or agent, or student, engages in Title IX sexual harassment whenever that person engages in conduct on the basis of an individual's sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. A district employee conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct; or
2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the district's educational program or activity; or
3. Sexual assault as defined in 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(6)(a)(v), Dating Violence as defined in 34 U.S.C. §12291(a)(10), Domestic Violence as defined in 34 U.S.C. §12291(a)(8), or Stalking as defined in 34 U.S.C. §12291(a) (30).

Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, touching, crude jokes or pictures, discussions of sexual experiences, teasing related to sexual characteristics, spreading rumors related to a person's alleged sexual activities, rape, sexual battery, sexual abuse, and sexual coercion.

The superintendent or designee will ensure that the district prevents and responds to allegations of Title IX sexual harassment as follows:

1. The district's grievance process shall, at a minimum:

1. Treat complainants and respondents equitably by providing remedies to a complainant where the respondent is determined to be responsible for sexual harassment, and by following a grievance process that complies with 34 C.F.R. §106.45 before the imposition of any disciplinary sanctions or other actions against a respondent.
2. Require an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence – including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence – and provide that credibility determinations may not be based on a person's status as a complainant, respondent, or witness.

RE: Title IX Sexual Harassment Personnel/Students

TITLE IX

Sexual harassment affects a student's ability to learn and an employee's ability to work. Providing an educational and workplace environment free from sexual harassment is an important district goal. The district does not discriminate on the basis of sex in any of its education programs or activities, and it complies with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Title IX) and its implementing regulations (34 C.F.R. Part 106) concerning everyone in the district's education programs and activities, including applicants for employment, students, parents/guardians, employees, and third parties.

TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT PROHIBITED

Sexual harassment as defined in Title IX (Title IX Sexual Harassment) is prohibited. Any person, including a district employee or agent, or student, engages in Title IX sexual harassment whenever that person engages in conduct on the basis of an individual's sex that satisfies one or more of the following:

1. A district employee conditions the provision of an aid, benefit, or service on an individual's participation in unwelcome sexual conduct; or
2. Unwelcome conduct determined by a reasonable person to be so severe, pervasive, and objectively offensive that it effectively denies a person equal access to the district's educational program or activity; or
3. Sexual assault as defined in 20 U.S.C. §1092(f)(6)(a)(v), Dating Violence as defined in 34 U.S.C. §12291(a)(10), Domestic Violence as defined in 34 U.S.C. §12291(a)(8), or Stalking as defined in 34 U.S.C. §12291(a) (30).

Examples of sexual harassment include, but are not limited to, touching, crude jokes or pictures, discussions of sexual experiences, teasing related to sexual characteristics, spreading rumors related to a person's alleged sexual activities, rape, sexual battery, sexual abuse, and sexual coercion.

DEFINITIONS (FROM 34 C.F.R. §106.30)

Complainant means an individual who is alleged to be the victim of conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Education program or activity includes locations, events, or circumstances where the district has substantial control over both the respondent and the context in which alleged sexual harassment occurs.

Formal Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint means a document filed by a complainant or signed by the Title IX Coordinator alleging sexual harassment against a respondent and requesting that the district investigate the allegation.

Respondent means an individual who has been reported to be the perpetrator of the conduct that could constitute sexual harassment.

Supportive Measures mean non-disciplinary, non-punitive individualized services offered as appropriate, as reasonably available, and without fee or charge to the complainant or the respondent before or after the filing of a Formal Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint or where no formal Title IX Sexual Harassment Complaint has been filed.

TITLE IX SEXUAL HARASSMENT PREVENTION AND RESPONSE

The superintendent or designee will ensure that the district prevents and responds to allegations of Title IX sexual harassment as follows:

1. Ensures that the district's comprehensive health education program incorporates (a) age-appropriate sexual abuse and assault awareness and prevention programs in grades Pre-K through 12, and (b) age-appropriate education about the warning signs, recognition, dangers, and prevention of teen dating violence in grades 7-12. This includes incorporating student social and emotional development into the district's educational program as required by state law and in alignment with board policy.
2. Incorporates education and training for school staff as recommended by the superintendent, Title IX Coordinator, nondiscrimination coordinator, building principal, assistant building principal, dean of students, or a complaint manager.

The district's grievance process shall, at a minimum:

1. Treat complainants and respondents equitably by providing remedies to a complainant where the respondent is determined to be responsible for sexual harassment, and by following a grievance process that complies with 34 C.F.R. §106.45 before the imposition of any disciplinary sanctions or other actions against a respondent.
2. Require an objective evaluation of all relevant evidence – including both inculpatory and exculpatory evidence – and provide that credibility determinations may not be based on a person's status as a complainant, respondent, or witness.

RE: New Board Member Orientation

Approved:

Because the Board, as the policy making authority of the Bloomfield Public Schools, is responsible to the public for the success of all educational services offered by the school system, and because that success is directly dependent upon each Board member's ability to participate meaningfully in the decision making process that governs this system, it shall be the policy of the Board to provide, as soon as practicable, for the orientation of new members. The purpose of the orientation is to help new members become quickly acquainted with their Board duties and responsibilities.

Orientation of new Board members will begin at the outset of their candidacy and continue throughout the election process. Prior to elections, beginning as soon as the individual's candidacy is known, the candidates will receive from the Board a brief overview of the Bloomfield Public School district. The candidates will be placed on a mailing list to receive notices from the Board, other meetings, and summary reports of Board action. Candidates will also be informed that additional information pertinent to each Board agenda item is available to them through the Central Office.

After the general election in November, and prior to the new members officially assuming the position in December, the new members will be invited to meet with the Superintendent and other administrative personnel to discuss services to be performed for the Board, and to allow them to request any other information they may deem desirable. Each new member will also receive an orientation packet from the Superintendent's office and will be notified of and given the opportunity to attend sessions of the Connecticut Association of Boards of Education or similar new Board member orientation.

The packet will include:

1. A copy of the Board's policies, rules, and regulations.
2. A copy of the current school budget and the latest financial statement.
3. A new Board Member packet from CAFE.
4. Any other materials relevant to duties and responsibilities as members of the Bloomfield Public Schools.

First-time elected board members are to complete a training program that minimally includes the following:
