How long have you been at PAEC?

I have been at PAEC for 20 years.

What do you enjoy about your job/position?

I love my job because I have had the opportunity to help students build strong foundational skills that prepare them for the next level of learning. Watching them grow and succeed brings me so much joy.

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

Remain flexible and always keep an open mind to change! Growth happens when we are willing to learn, adapt, and embrace new ideas.

Tell me something interesting or funny about yourself.

I used to be a hairdresser, and as a teen I was a plus-size model.

I also love arts and crafts! I'm an entrepreneur and previously worked as a décor planner.

It has been a valuable and meaningful experience for me.

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

My advice is to always be patient and calm, especially when working with children. Build trust, communicate clearly with your team, and never hesitate to ask questions. Stay positive and remember that every small step you take makes a big difference for the students.

JESSECA JAMISON

How long have you been at PAEC?

I have been at PAEC for four years. During this time, I've had the opportunity to assist with the program, teach in my own classroom, and work closely with students who have diverse behavioral and academic needs.

What do you enjoy about your job/position?

I truly enjoy the relationships I build with my students. Working with youth who have unique challenges has allowed me to connect with them on a deeper level and support both their academic and behavioral growth.

I also enjoy the creativity and flexibility that comes with teaching.

I love finding ways to make learning meaningful and engaging.

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

My best advice is to lead with patience, empathy, and consistency. Working in special education requires understanding that every student's journey looks different, so celebrating small wins is essential. Build strong classroom routines, communicate clearly, and collaborate often with your team. Most importantly, remember to take care of yourself. This field is rewarding but demanding, and maintaining balance helps you show up fully for your students.

Tell me something interesting or funny about yourself.

Something interesting about me is that I have a deeply rooted dance background. I danced for thirteen years before college and then continued dancing for four more years on a dance scholarship at Central State University, giving me over seventeen years of experience. I still stay connected to the art by choreographing routines for high schools and dance organizations. I also love traveling and exploring new places and as a true foodie, trying different cuisines wherever I go is one of my favorite parts of the adventure!

JALESIA GARRISON

with them. I love hearing their stories and being able to offer advice based on things I've already experienced

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

The advice I would give others in my position is to always be a team player, keep an open and attentive ear,
and show respect to both the students and your colleagues.

Tell me something interesting or funny about yourself.

My favorite hobby is to relax and hibernate like a grizzly bear.
I'm originally from Cincinnati, Ohio and
I've been living in Chicago for 4 years now.

ABRAHAM ARCE

How long have you been at PAEC?

I have been a dedicated member of the PAEC team for six years. My experience has been diverse, starting with roles as a One-on-One Assistant and Job Coach.

I then transitioned into education, teaching Physical Education at the PAEC Academy, and am currently in my second year as the teacher for a Kindergarten-First Grade classroom.

What do you enjoy about your job/position?

The most rewarding part of my job is the opportunity to work with students with special needs. There is nothing more fulfilling than seeing a student learn a new skill, achieve a milestone, and realize their own potential. Ultimately, I know that the hard work we do every day truly makes a difference in our students' lives, and that sense of meaningful contribution means a lot to me.

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

Believe in the potential of every student to learn and grow.

Be patient, we all learn in different ways.

Tell me something interesting or funny about yourself.

An interesting fact about me is that I am a professional music producer and recording artist. I operate my own studio, where I have produced and recorded music for a variety of artists. My original music is published across major platforms, including Spotify, Apple Music, and YouTube. Beyond the studio, I am also an experienced live performer, singing and playing guitar on stages as notable as Millennium Park and the Chicago Symphony Center.

Music is truly my deepest passion!

IVY WEINGARDS

How long have you been at PAEC?

11 years

What do you enjoy about your job/position?

I enjoy seeing the students' faces when they grasp a new concept and watching their confidence grow.

I also appreciate the wonderful, supportive staff I get to work with each day

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

My advice is to stay patient, flexible, and open-minded. Build strong relationships with your students and colleagues, because collaboration and trust make a huge difference. Celebrate small victories they add up and remember that progress looks different for every student. Don't be afraid to ask questions, seek support, and keep learning. Most importantly, lead with compassion and consistency; when students feel understood and supported, they thrive.

Tell me something interesting or funny about yourself.

I have two dogs a Shepsky named Blizzard and a Boston Terrier named Ziggy who I absolutely adore. I walk them every day, rain or shine, and they always keep life entertaining. They also love curling up on the couch with me by the fire to watch my favorite shows, including Game of Thrones, House of the Dragon, Yellowstone, and Landman. I'm currently collecting dog toys, treats, blankets, and towels for the animal shelter this holiday season, because supporting animals in need is something I'm truly passionate about.

Congratulations again, and thank you for all that you do for the students and staff here at PAEC!!

ALEX ZAMORA

How long have you been at PAEC?
Since July 2018

What do you enjoy about your job/position?

It's not a routine job so everyday is a new experience.
I have the opportunity to plan for up to 40 years into the future for PAEC projects and improvements.

This year's latest and greatest project involves updates to geothermal for the PAEC Education Center (1636) facility along with some much needed parking lot repair.

What advice would you give to others in your position to help them excel?

Networking with facility managers is a key component to excelling.

Keep an open mind, listen and consider other methods.

Ask questions even if you already know the answer
'cause sometimes you'll get a different perspective on the solution

Tell me something interesting or funny about yourself.

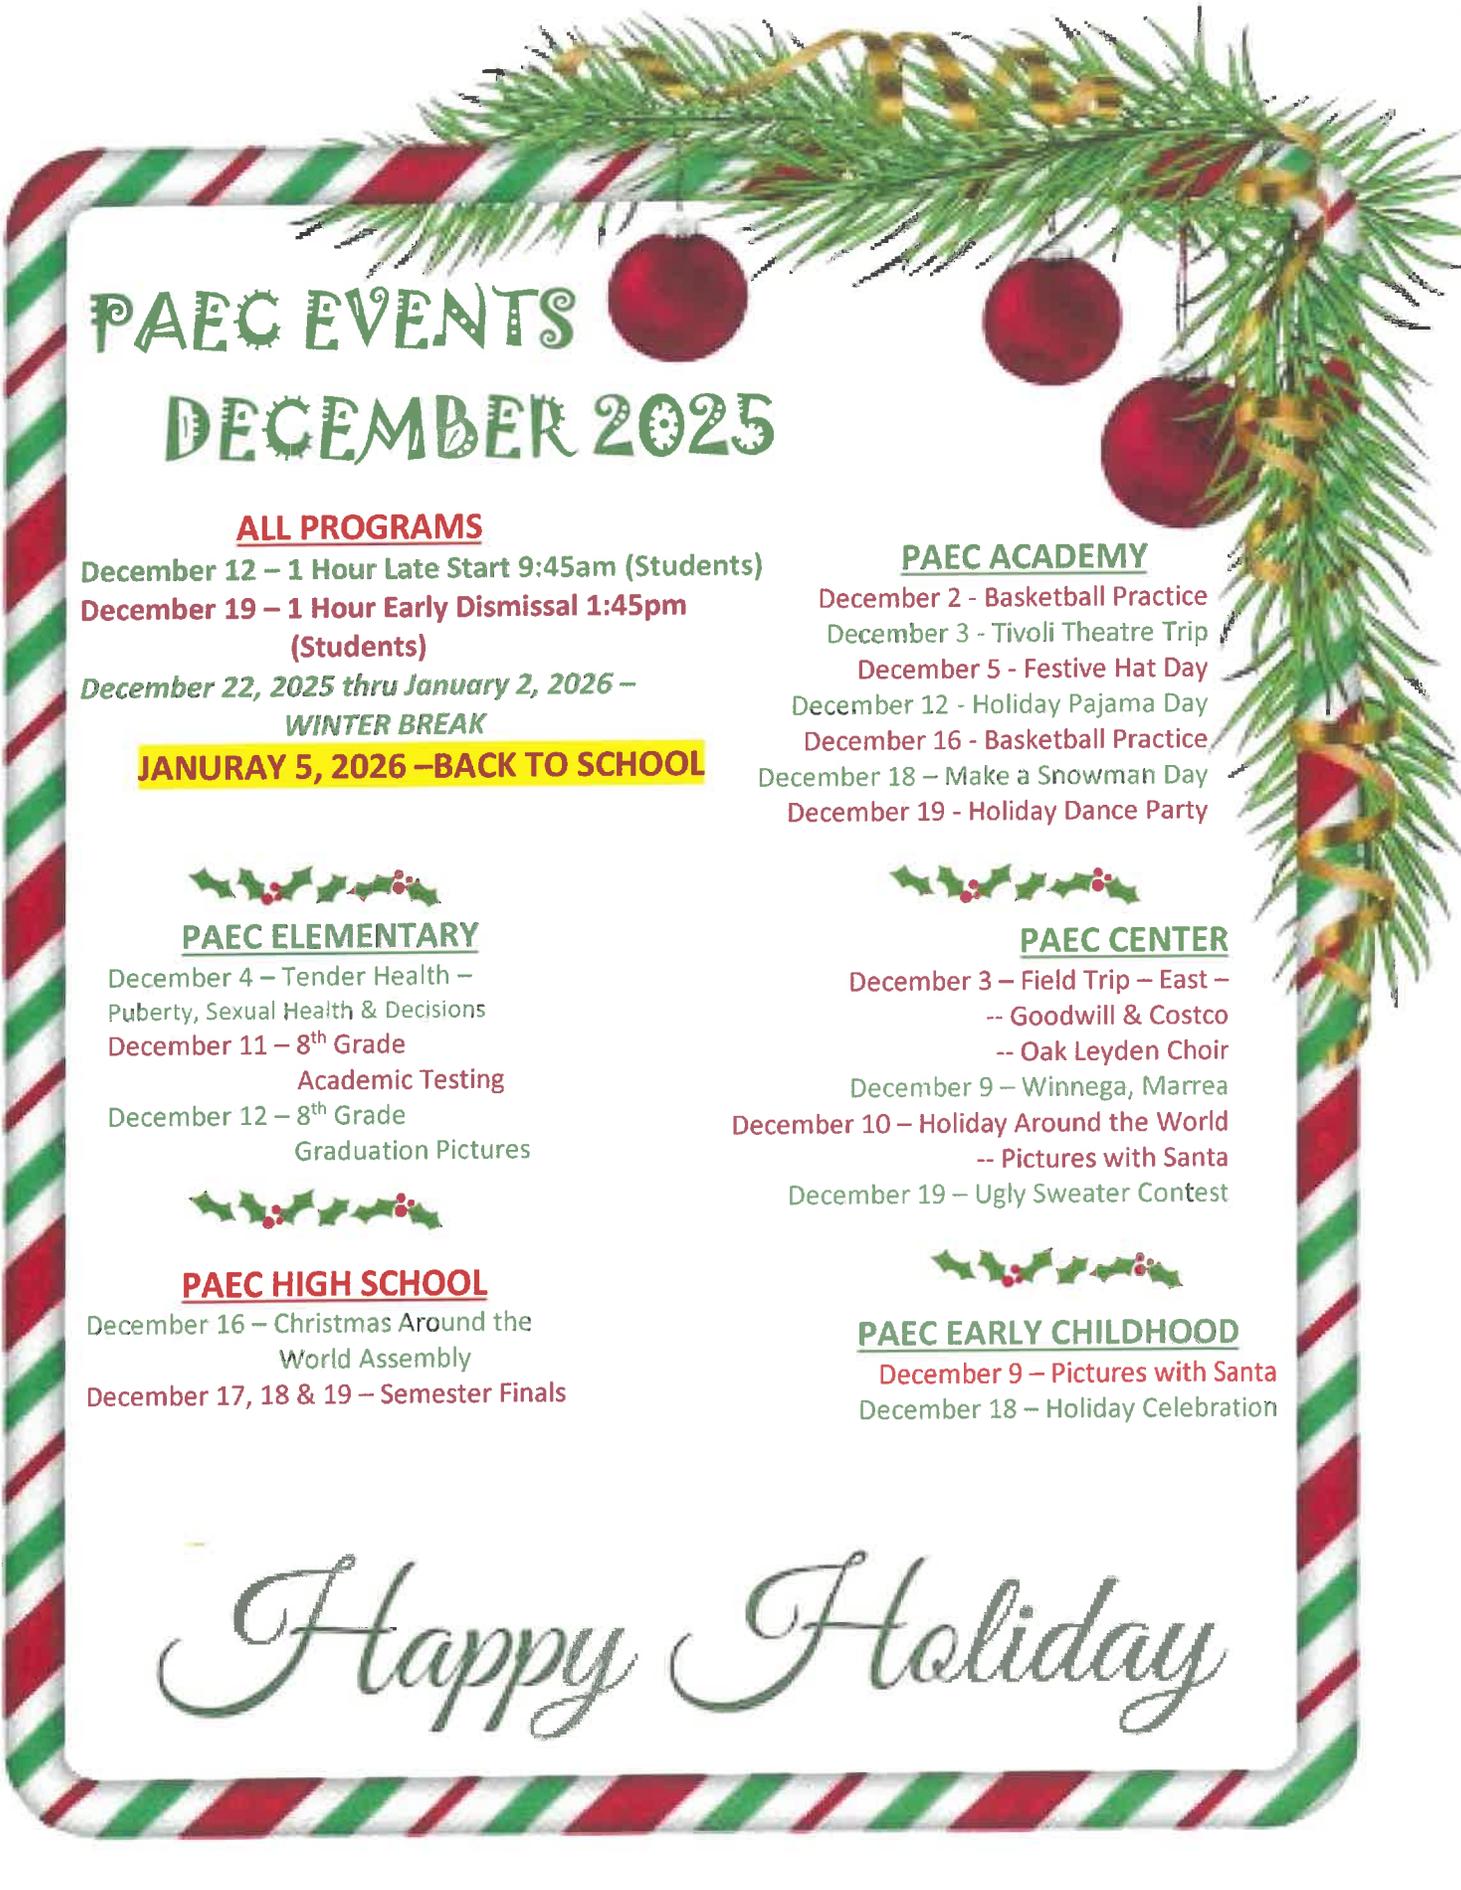

If you need something, I know a guy.
At the very least a guy who knows a guy.
