DIRECTOR'S REPORT

GCSSD/UTM Innovation Hub Partnership

Mr. Eddie Pruett announced that the Gibson County Special School District has established a partnership with the University of Tennessee at Martin to create enhanced opportunities for students interested in the fields of agriculture and education, known as the "Innovation Hub." This initiative allows students to earn college credits through traditional dual-enrollment courses offered by UTM, in addition to new experiential learning and credit-by-exam opportunities.

This program is designed to prepare students for future careers in teaching through the Teaching as a Profession (TAP) pathway, which effectively reduces the duration of their educational journey, enabling them to enter the teaching profession more promptly. Furthermore, it expands post-secondary credit opportunities in agriculture, enhances STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) education, and promotes career exploration for elementary and middle school students. The initiative also provides internships for current UTM students, facilitating hands-on experience and equipping both students and educators to navigate the challenges posed by the increasing influence of artificial intelligence and the evolving economy.

TSBA Annual Convention & Leadership Conference — November 13-16

Mr. Eddie Pruett reminded the board about the upcoming TSBA Annual Convention & Leadership Conference on November 13–16.
