Standards for School Board Leadership

As the entity legally charged with governing a school district, each school board is responsible to its community for governing efficiently and leading effectively to provide for a fair education, resulting in student success for all.

The following five standards are essential to being an effective, high-performing school board team:

Standard 1: Conduct and Ethics

The school board, as a whole, provides leadership to the community on behalf of the school district by conducting its business in a fair, respectful, legal, and responsible manner.

An effective, high-performing school board strives to meet the following benchmarks:

- A. Recognize the school board team consists of school board members and the superintendent and evaluates its performance at least annually.
- B. Take full responsibility for its activity and behavior at and away from the school board table.
- C. Encourage its members to express their individual opinions, respect others' opinions, and vote according to their convictions.
- D. Speak with one voice after reaching a decision.
- E. Spend time on board governance work rather than staff work - focuses on the ends not the means.
- F. Provide for orientation and ongoing training for all school board members.
- G. Follow established policies, including the chain-of-command, by directing people with concerns to the appropriate staff.
- H. Set an example of respectful and civil leadership.

Standard 2: Vision

The school board, with community input, envisions the educational future of the community and then formulates the goals, defines the outcomes, and sets the course for the school district.

An effective, high-performing school board strives to meet the following benchmarks:

- A. Use clear, focused, attainable, and measurable goals and outcomes to support gains in student achievement.
- B. Develop a strategic plan which includes well crafted school district belief statements, mission statement, vision statement, goals, and objectives that enable the school board to evaluate school district performance.
- C. Regularly monitor the strategic plan to evaluate progress toward goal achievement and school district success.
- D. Ensure that the school district belief statements, mission statement, vision statement, goals, and objectives are reflected in school board policies, mirrored in the budget planning and implementation efforts, and are supported school-wide.
- E. Communicate the strategic plan and the progress to the community.

Standard 3: Structure

The school board, to achieve its vision, establishes organizational and physical structures for student and staff success.

An effective, high-performing school board strives to meet the following benchmarks:

- A. Create organizational and physical structures based on equity in which all students and staff have the resources and supports to maximize achievement.
- B. Advocate and provide for learning through rigorous curriculum, effective technology, and a safe and secure environment.
- C. Select and employ one person - the superintendent - as the school district's chief executive officer to lead and manage the school district.
- D. Hold the superintendent accountable for school district performance and compliance with written school board policy.
- E. Delegate the authority to the superintendent to recommend and evaluate all school district staff within the standards established through written school board policies.
- F. Accept ultimate responsibility for the care, management, fiscal oversight, and control of the school district while understanding that the day-to-day operations will be conducted by the staff.

Standard 4: Accountability

The school board is accountable to the community for constantly monitoring the conditions affecting the school district as a whole.

An effective, high-performing school board strives to meet the following benchmarks:

- A. Recognize the duty to itself and the community to determine whether the authority delegated to the superintendent is being used as intended.
- B. Evaluate the superintendent's performance at least annually.
- C. Use student achievement data and other indicators when available as the basis for assessing progress toward school district goals and compliance with school board policies and state and federal laws.
- D. Recognize the distinction between "monitoring data" (data used by the school board to address accountability) and "management data" (data used by the staff for operations).

Standard 5: Advocacy and Communication

The school board advances its vision at the local, regional, state, and national levels.

An effective, high-performing school board strives to meet the following benchmarks:

- A. Focus on community-wide concerns and values that best support equity and student achievement rather than being influenced by special interests.
- B. Develop communication strategies to build trust between the school board and the superintendent, staff, students, and community.
- C. Utilize a public relations strategy that supports the flow of information into and out of the school district.
- D. Engage and build relationships with both public and private stakeholders.
- E. Advocate on local, state, and national levels.

The Top Five Legal Concepts for School Board Members

By Cathy Miller, former MSBA Director of Legal and Policy Services

If I was a school board member, I would be overwhelmed by the depth and breadth of legal issues that apply to school districts and to elected officials. Even after working with the issues for more than 18 years, I sometimes find myself overwhelmed. In that spirit, I have identified what I think are the top five laws or legal concepts for school board members. These are good places to start with your learning process.

1. The Open Meeting Law. This law is important not only because of the frequency with which school board members will encounter issues covered by this law, but also because it provides for personal liability for board members who violate it. In short, the Open Meeting Law requires a discussion about school board business or school board committee business among a quorum to take place at a properly noticed, open meeting unless an exception applies to require or allow a closed meeting. Discussions via email or text messages do count and create a record of the conversations. MSBA has developed a summary of the exceptions within the law that allow or require a closed meeting.

2. Data Practices. The Minnesota Government Data Practices Act and the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act are complicated. What school board members need to know is that only public data can be safely released or discussed in public. MSBA has developed a list of public data for various individuals on whom school districts typically maintain data. This is a situation where knowledge is not power. Instead, knowledge of private data is potential liability. Wrongful release of private data carries the very real possibility for liability — potentially personal liability — and the dollar amount can be very significant.

3. Email. Obviously, this is not a law, but a school board member's use of email for conducting the duties of his or her elected office requires discipline and restraint or significant problems for the school board member and the school district could result. When email is used for school board work, government data is created. The public can request access to and copies of public data. The government entity can charge for paper copies. The government entity cannot charge for separating public data from private data. A public data request for emails can result in the school district being required to print thousands of pages so that someone can redact (black out private data) the emails. The school district has no ability to recoup those redaction costs. In addition, if school board members discuss board or board committee issues among themselves via email, they are violating the Open Meeting Law if a quorum of the board or board committee is involved. A record of the violation is created that cannot realistically be deleted. Also, board members may think an email is private because it is sent to one other person. However, if the email is about board work, it is government data and presumed public. School board members could be embarrassed if they make the mistake of communicating about board work thinking it will remain private when, in fact, they were creating public data.

4. Policy. School board members can save themselves time and effort by becoming familiar with their own school district's policies. They do not have to make a new decision if a policy already covers a question. They can simply follow the existing policy or direct the administration to do so. School board policy needs to be followed by the school board. If policy is out of date with current practice, the policy must be repealed or revised.

5. Ask first, then vote – not the other way around. Decisions of the school board are binding. If a school board member does not have enough information to be comfortable with a decision, he or she should ask for more information before voting. Trying to go back and reverse a bad decision is much more difficult, sometimes impossible, than getting clarity before a vote.

At this point, I would usually say, "contact me with questions," but by the time this article reaches you, I will be retired from MSBA. I'll say instead, "contact Terry Morrow with questions." Terry is the new Director of Legal and Policy Services at MSBA. My prediction is that you will enjoy working with him, because I have. The rest of the MSBA staff are available to you as well, and they are a wonderful group of people. Make use of their knowledge and dedication to help you.

I have also enjoyed working with school board members these last 18-plus years. You are dedicated public servants who want the best for Minnesota's kids, and you deal with many challenges along the way. Thank you for the example you set.

MSBA thanks Cathy Miller for her 18 years of service to the association! You can contact Terry Morrow (the new Director of Policy and Legal Services) at 800-324-4459 or tmorrow@mnmsba.org.

Social Media Guidelines for School Board Members

Think before you post – and be careful what information you share

By Andrea Gribble, Founder of #SocialSchool4EDU

School board members are dedicated to serving their districts and dealing with many complicated issues. They also work closely with parents, educational professionals, and other community members.

It's not an easy job.

Social media plays an emerging role that can add even more complexity to board members' responsibilities. Knowing how to use social media just for your personal use is challenging enough, but when you are an elected official for your district, how should it change?

Highline Public Schools in the state of Washington has a specific procedure when it comes to how school board members utilize social media. Tove Tupper, Assistant Director Of Communications, shared the reason behind creating these guidelines:

"We use social media as a district to share the Highline story with our community, and connect with students, families, and staff. We want our board members to be able to do the same if they choose. These guidelines created specifically for our board members are meant to support them as they connect with our Highline community on social media and share the great work happening in our schools."

The full policy can be found at <https://bit.ly/33PWGTi>. I've summarized the list here:

1. Think before you post. Is this something that you do not mind seeing on the front page of the newspaper? Will this be something that you would want your own children or the students of the school district to see as a good example of the way to communicate or comment? Post responsibly.

2. Be careful of what information you share. Do not share personal information about students, employees, yourself, other board members, and citizens. Likewise, do not share information that the school district has contractually agreed to keep confidential; for example, proprietary information, trade secrets, and security information. Think before sharing legally protected, privileged information, such as attorney-client, physician-patient, and other privileged information recognized by a court.

3. Social media is not for private conversations.

Face-to-face meetings or telephone conversations may be more appropriate.

4. Don't let negative emotions drive you to post or respond.

Anger may cause you to post information that you will be sorry for later. Is this something that you would be ashamed of if you read it months or years from now? Remember that what you place on social media sites – and in emails, text messages, and chat rooms – can spread quickly and permanently remain on the Internet or in someone's possession. Statements that are harassing, discriminatory, defamatory, and terroristic are not suitable and could subject board members, and possibly the school district, to legal action. Be polite.

5. Use appropriate language.

Do not use abusive, profane, threatening, or offensive language.

6. Do not post on behalf of the school district.

Do not post self-promotions, items for sale, commercial messages, and advertisements that are associated with the school district.

7. Use social media for listening.

Do not conduct board business on social media sites. Instead, use these sites for listening or reading about others' opinions, making announcements, having conversations, and obtaining feedback.

8. Comply with the law and relevant policies including school districts' policies regarding acceptable use, student records, harassment and discrimination, and copyright laws; the internet service provider's terms; the website disclaimers, terms of use, and privacy policies; and federal, state, and local laws, including the open meetings act and public records act. Also, respect the rights of other users to an open and hospitable technology environment, regardless of race, religion, creed, color, national origin, age, honorably discharged veteran or military status, sex, sexual orientation, gender expression and identity, marital status, the presence of any sensory, mental or physical disability, or the use of a trained dog guide or service animal by a person with a disability.

The Minnesota Open Meeting Law requires that meetings of governmental bodies generally be open to the public. This publication discusses the groups and types of meetings covered by the open meeting law (page 2), and then reviews the requirements of (page 6) and exceptions to the law (page 13), the penalties for its violation (page 17), and sources of advice (page 18).

Executive Summary

The Minnesota Open Meeting Law was originally enacted in 1957.¹ It is now codified in Minnesota Statutes, chapter 13D. The Minnesota Supreme Court has articulated three purposes of the open meeting law:

- To prohibit actions being taken at a secret meeting where it is impossible for the interested public to become fully informed about a public board's decisions or to detect improper influences
- To assure the public's right to be informed
- To afford the public an opportunity to present its views to the public body²

"These purposes are deeply rooted in the fundamental proposition that a well-informed populace is essential to the vitality of our democratic form of government."³ Courts interpret the law liberally and in favor of openness.

Entities covered by the law. The law applies to state and local multimember governmental bodies, including committees and subcommittees, and nonprofits created by political subdivisions. A separate law applies to the legislature.⁴

² Prior Lake American v. Mader, 642 N.W.2d 729, 735 (Minn. 2002) (en banc) (citing St. Cloud Newspapers, Inc. v. District 742 Community Schools, 332 N.W.2d 1, 4 (Minn. 1983)). While the courts consistently say that the open meeting law is to afford the public an opportunity to present its views to the public body, there is no general right for members of the public to speak at a meeting. Some statutes, and perhaps some home rule charters, specify that a hearing on a particular matter must be held at which anyone who wishes to address the public body may do so. See, e.g., Minn. Stat. § 117.0412, subd. 2.

³ Prior Lake American, 642 N.W.2d at 735.

⁴ Minn. Stat. § 3.055.

Situations where the law applies. A meeting is a “meeting” for purposes of the law when a quorum or more of the governmental body is gathered—in person or by interactive technology, whether or not action is taken or contemplated. The open meeting law does not address whether the governmental body must keep or publish meeting minutes, hold a meeting for a particular purpose, or allow members of the public to address the body. For any particular governmental body, there may be other laws or charter provisions that address those topics.

What constitutes an open meeting. A meeting is open when proper notice was given in advance of the meeting, the public may attend and observe, and relevant materials are available to the public.

Exceptions to the law. A meeting may be closed based on a limited attorney-client privilege, and for the purposes of discussing labor negotiations strategy, evaluating employees, and discussing security issues and property transactions. The law does not apply to a governmental body exercising quasi-judicial functions involving disciplinary proceedings.

Violations of the law. While actions taken at a meeting held in violation of the law are still valid, the law provides for penalties and potentially removal from office.

Where to get advice. A governmental entity can seek advice from its attorney, the Minnesota Attorney General, or the Commissioner of Administration. An individual may seek advice from a private attorney or the Commissioner of Administration.

Groups and Meetings Governed by the Open Meeting Law

The law applies to all levels of state and local government.

The open meeting law applies to:

- a state agency, board, commission, or department when it is required or permitted by law to transact public business in a meeting;
- the governing body of any school district, unorganized territory, county, city, town, or other public body;
- a committee, subcommittee, board, department, or commission of a public body subject to the law; and
- the governing body or a committee of a statewide or local public pension plan.⁵

⁵ Minn. Stat. § 13D.01, subd. 1.

“Public body” is not defined but the Minnesota Supreme Court has stated that “[i]n common understanding, ‘public body’ is possibly the broadest expression for the category of governmental entities that perform functions for the public benefit.”⁶

In determining whether the open meeting law applies to a particular entity, one should look at all of the entity’s characteristics. For example, in a 1998 case, the Minnesota Supreme Court held that because the statute authorizing creation of a municipal power agency authorized an agency to conduct its affairs as a private corporation, it could hold closed meetings.⁷ The court held so notwithstanding the statute that provides for municipal power agencies to be political subdivisions of the state.⁸

The law generally applies to nonprofit corporations created by governmental entities.

The list of groups covered by the open meeting law does not refer to nonprofit corporations created by a governmental entity. However, the law creating a specific public nonprofit corporation may specify that it is subject to the open meeting law.⁹ In addition, any corporation created by a political subdivision before May 31, 1997, is clearly subject to the open meeting law.¹⁰

Gatherings of less than a quorum of a public body are not subject to the law; a “meeting” is held when the group is capable of exercising decision-making powers.

The Minnesota Supreme Court has held that the open meeting law applies only to a quorum or more of members of the governing body or a committee, subcommittee, board, department, or commission of the governing body.¹¹ Serial meetings in groups of less than a quorum held in ⁷ Southern Minn. Mun. Power Agency v. Boyne, 578 N.W.2d 362, 364 (Minn. 1998) (en banc) (citing Minn. Stat. § 453.54, subd. 21, and discussing the factors that distinguish a public corporation from a private corporation). See also Minnesota Joint Underwriting Ass’n v. Star Tribune Media Co., 862 N.W.2d 62, 65 (Minn. 2015) (discussing Boyne; stating whether a particular entity is a “government entity” under the Data Practices Act is a question of law subject to the court’s de novo review).

⁹ E.g., Minn. Stat. §§ 62Q.03, subd. 6 (Minnesota Risk Adjustment Association); 85B.02, subd. 6 (Lake Superior Center Authority); 116V.01, subd. 10 (Agricultural Utilization Research Institute); 124D.385, subd. 4 (Minnesota Commission on National and Community Service may create a nonprofit but it is subject to the open meeting law); and 128C.22 (State High School League).

¹⁰ Minn. Stat. § 465.719, subd. 9.

¹¹ Moberg v. Independent School Dist. No. 281, 336 N.W.2d 510 (Minn. 1983) (en banc).

order to avoid open meeting law requirements may also be found to be a violation, depending on the facts of the case.¹²

A public body subject to the law should be cautious about using e-mail to communicate with other members of the body. Although the statute does not specifically address the use of e-mail, it is likely that the court would analyze use of e-mail in the same way as it has telephone conversations and letters.¹³ That is, private communication about official business through telephone conversations or letters by a quorum of a public body subject to the law would violate the law.

Serial communication through telephone conversations or letters by less than a quorum with the intent to avoid a public hearing or to come to an agreement on an issue relating to official business could also violate the law. In a 1993 case, the Minnesota Court of Appeals held that the open meeting law was not violated when two of five city council members attended private mediation sessions related to city business. The court determined that the two council members did not constitute a committee or subcommittee of the council because the group was not capable of exercising decision-making powers.¹⁴

The law applies to informational meetings.

The Minnesota Supreme Court has held that the open meeting law applies to all gatherings of members of a governing body, whether or not action is taken or contemplated. This means that a gathering of members of a public body for an informational seminar on matters currently facing the body or that might come before the body must be conducted openly.¹⁵ However,

¹² Id. at 518; see also Mankato Free Press Co. v. City of North Mankato, 563 N.W.2d 291, 295 (Minn. App. 1997). On remand to the district court for a factual finding on whether the city used serial interviews to avoid the open meeting law, the trial court found, and the court of appeals affirmed, that the serial meetings were not held to avoid the law. Mankato Free Press Co. v. City of North Mankato, No. C9-98-677, 1998 WL 865714 (Minn. App. 1998) (unpublished opinion), review denied (Minn. Feb. 24, 1999).

¹³ Moberg, 336 N.W.2d at 518. The Commissioner of Administration stated in a July 9, 2008, opinion that an e-mail sent to all members of a city council by the city manager was effectively “printed material” that should be available to members of the public and also suggested that the legislature revise the statute to recognize the use of electronic and other types of communications. Minn. Dept. of Admin. Advisory Op. 08-015. A September 8, 2009, opinion by the commissioner states that the exchange of e-mails by staff and members of the Metro Gang Strike Force Advisory Board violated the open meeting law because it was not just a matter of a quorum receiving information, but a quorum of the body discussing and then giving the staff person direction on the action to take. Minn. Dept. of Admin. Advisory Op. 09-020. In June 2017, the Commissioner of Administration issued an opinion that a letter signed by a quorum of a school board that was sent without public notice, or discussion and decision on the substance of the letter in an open meeting violated the law. The school board said one member drafted it, sent it to the superintendent, who made minor revisions, placed it on letterhead, and then sent it to the other members to sign. The board asserted it did not discuss or take action on it. The commissioner however found that unlikely. “The Board’s assertion that it did not discuss, decide, or take action on the contents of the letter or sending the letter is not plausible based on the very existence of the letter purporting to be from “the Board” and bearing the signatures of a quorum of members of the Board.” Minn. Dept. of Admin. Advisory Op. 17-005 (Eveleth-Gilbert Public Schools, I.S.D. No. 2154, and a letter sent to the IRRRB).

¹⁴ Sovereign v. Dunn, 498 N.W.2d 62 (Minn. App. 1993), review denied (Minn. May 28, 1993).

¹⁵ St. Cloud Newspapers, Inc., 332 N.W.2d 1.

there are some exceptions. A 1975 attorney general opinion stated that city council attendance at a League of Minnesota Cities training program for city officials did not violate the open meeting law if the members did not discuss specific municipal business.¹⁶ The statute governing the Lessard-Sams Outdoor Heritage Council allows members of the council to travel together to visit sites and learn about projects without it being a violation of the law as long as the members do not decide, or agree to decide, matters under the council's jurisdiction.¹⁷

The law does not cover chance or social gatherings.

The open meeting law does not apply to chance or social gatherings of members of a public body.¹⁸ However, a quorum of a public body may not, as a group, discuss or receive information on official business in any setting under the guise of a private social gathering.¹⁹

The law does not apply to certain types of advisory groups.

The Minnesota Court of Appeals has held that the open meeting law does not apply to certain types of advisory groups.²⁰ In that case, a presidential search advisory committee to the University of Minnesota Board of Regents was held not to be a committee of the governing body for purposes of the open meeting law. In reaching its holding, the court pointed out that no regents were on the search committee and that the committee had no power to set policy or make a final decision. It is not clear if a court would reach the same result if members of the governing body were also on the advisory committee. Depending on the number of members of the governing body involved and on the form or extent of the delegation of authority from the governing body to the members, a court might consider the advisory committee to be a committee of the governing body.

A separate law applies to the legislature.

In 1990, the legislature passed a law separate from the open meeting law that requires all legislative meetings be open to the public.²¹ The law applies to House and Senate floor sessions and to meetings of committees, subcommittees, conference committees, and legislative commissions. For purposes of this law, a meeting occurs when a quorum is present and action is taken regarding a matter within the jurisdiction of the group. Each house of the legislature must adopt rules to implement these requirements. Remedies provided under these rules are the exclusive means of enforcing this law.

(b), provides "Travel to and from scheduled and publicly noticed site visits by council members for the purposes of receiving information is not a violation of paragraph (a). Hybrid groups—those made up of both legislators and nonlegislators—may have different open meeting law requirements. The Legislative-Citizen Commission on Minnesota Resources is subject to the Minnesota Open Meeting Law,²² except that a meeting only occurs when a quorum is present and action is taken, similar to the legislative open meeting law.²³ In contrast, the Lessard-Sams Outdoor Heritage Council, which also has both legislators and nonlegislators on it, is subject to the Minnesota Open Meeting Law²⁴, and a meeting occurs when a quorum is present whether or not action is taken.²⁵

Requirements of the Open Meeting Law

Generally

Meetings must be open to the public.

The law also requires that votes in open meetings be recorded in a journal or minutes and that the journal or minutes used to record votes of a meeting be open to the public.²⁶ The vote of each member must be recorded on appropriations of money, except for payments of judgments and claims and amounts fixed by statute.²⁷ A straw ballot to narrow the list of candidates for city administrator and not made public was held to be a secret vote in violation of the open meeting law, particularly in light of the fact that the straw vote was acted on and given the same effect as an official act.²⁸

²² Minn. Stat. ch. 13D.

²³ Minn. Stat. § 116P.08, subd. 5, “(a) Meetings of the commission, committees, or subcommittees of the commission, technical advisory committees, and peer reviewers must be open to the public and are subject to chapter 13D. The commission shall attempt to meet throughout various regions of the state during each biennium. For purposes of this subdivision, a meeting occurs when a quorum is present and action is taken regarding a matter within the jurisdiction of the commission, a committee or subcommittee of the commission, a technical advisory committee, or peer reviewers.

(b) For legislative members of the commission, enforcement of this subdivision is governed by section 3.055, subdivision 2. For nonlegislative members of the commission, enforcement of this subdivision is governed by section 13D.06, subdivisions 1 and 2.” (emphasis added).

Minn. Dept. of Admin. Advisory Op. 10-011.

Open meetings must be held in a public place within the borders of the public body.²⁹ Meetings may also be held by interactive technology if specified conditions are met to ensure openness and accessibility for those who wish to attend.³⁰ Please see the section in this publication on meetings by interactive technology for further information.

Public bodies must give notice of their meetings.

In 1974, the Minnesota Supreme Court held that failure to give notice of a meeting is a violation of the open meeting law.³¹ The court has also held that it is a violation of the open meeting law to conduct business before the time publicly announced for a meeting.³²

In 1987, the legislature spelled out the notice requirements in statute for regular, special, emergency, and closed meetings. Public bodies must do the following:

- Keep schedules of regular meetings on file at their offices.³³
- Post written notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the special meetings (meetings held at a time or place different from regular meetings) on their principal bulletin board or on the door of the usual meeting room if the public body does not have a principal bulletin board. The public body must also either mail notice to people who have requested such mailings, or publish notice in the official newspaper, at least three days before the meetings.³⁴
- Make good faith efforts to notify news media that have filed written requests (with telephone numbers) for notice of emergency meetings (special meetings called because of circumstances that require immediate consideration).³⁵

The same notice requirements apply to closed meetings.³⁶

Knutson*, 276 Minn. 340, 341, 150 N.W.2d 199, 200 (1967) (school board meeting held 20 miles outside the jurisdiction of the school board at a private office did not comply with open meeting law; consolidation proceedings were fatally defective because the resolution by which the proceedings were initiated was not adopted at a public meeting as required by law). The legislature may provide exceptions to this geographic requirement. See, e.g., Laws 2014, chapter 272, article 3, section 54 (authorizing the school board of Independent School District No. 2142, St. Louis County, to hold its meetings at the district's administrative office or at a convenient location for school board members and district residents outside of the school district boundaries if notice requirements are met).

³⁵ Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd. 3.

³⁶ Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd. 5.

Absent any other specific law governing notice by a state agency, a state agency required or permitted by law to transact public business in a meeting satisfies notice requirements if it publishes notice in the State Register or posts notice on the agency's website. In addition, a schedule of the regular meetings must be kept on file at the primary offices or posted on the agency's website.³⁷

Additional notice is not necessary for a recessed or continued session of a previous meeting if the time and place of the meeting was established during the previous meeting and recorded in the minutes of that meeting.³⁸

Relevant materials must be publicly available.

The open meeting law requires that for open meetings, at least one copy of any printed material prepared by the public body and distributed or available to all members of the public body also be available in the meeting room for inspection by the public. This requirement does not apply to materials that are classified as other than public under the Government Data Practices Act.³⁹

A public body cannot fulfill its obligation to make members' materials available in the meeting room for inspection by the public if the public does not know they are available for inspection. While there is not an affirmative duty to distribute copies to each member of the public in attendance at the meeting, liberally construing the law to protect the public's right to full access to the decision-making process of public bodies requires a public body to provide easy access to the materials.⁴⁰

Meetings by Interactive Technology⁴¹

Public bodies may hold meetings by interactive technology so long as certain requirements are met to ensure openness and accessibility for those who wish to attend. There are three statutes under the Minnesota Open Meeting Law⁴² that provide requirements for such meetings for different entities:

³⁷ Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd. 6.

³⁸ Minn. Stat. § 13D.04, subd. 4. See also Minn. Dept. of Admin. Advisory Op. 25-002.

³⁹ Minn. Stat. § 13D.01, subd. 6.

⁴⁰ Minn. Dept. of Admin. Advisory Op. 18-011.

⁴¹ The term "interactive technology" replaced "interactive television" and "other electric means" throughout chapter 13D in Laws 2021, chapter 14, which contained technical updates to the open meeting law. It is defined under section 13D.001, subdivision 2, as "a device, software program, or other application that allows individuals in different physical locations to see and hear one another."

⁴² Minn. Stat. ch. 13D.

- 1) one section applies to state entities⁴³ such as agencies, boards, commissions, departments, and certain statewide public pension plans, and any committee, subcommittee, board, department, or commission of any of those entities;
- 2) one section applies to public bodies other than state entities that are subject to the Minnesota Open Meeting Law⁴⁴; and
- 3) one section applies to meetings of public bodies during a health pandemic or a declared emergency.⁴⁵

Various statutes for specific public bodies also allow for meetings by interactive technology, telephone, or other electronic means.⁴⁶

The Minnesota Open Meeting Law interactive technology statutes are similar in many ways, but there are differences in the requirements. The following table outlines the requirements under each of the statutes.

⁴⁸ Prior to May 24, 2025, section 13D.02 required each location of a public body member to be open and accessible to the public. Further, a public body member could only participate up to three times a year from a nonpublic location if the member was serving in the military and was at a required drill, deployed, or on active duty, or the member had been advised by a health care professional against being in a public place for personal or family medical reasons. A temporary exception to these limitations was included in Laws 2021, chapter 14, section 7, which allowed a member of a public body to participate from a nonpublic location more than three times during the first half of calendar year 2021 due to the COVID-19 health pandemic. The remote participation restrictions were eliminated for public bodies subject to section 13D.02 under Laws 2025, chapter 39, article 6, section 1. Amendments were also made to the notice requirements under section 13D.02 to reflect these changes (Laws 2025, ch. 39, art. 6, § 2).

Exceptions to the Open Meeting Law

A closed meeting, except one closed under the attorney-client privilege, must be electronically recorded at the expense of the public body. Unless otherwise provided by law, the recordings must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting.⁴⁹

The law does not apply to state agency disciplinary hearings.

The open meeting law does not apply to any state agency, board, or commission when exercising quasi-judicial functions involving disciplinary hearings.⁵⁰

Certain meetings involving employee evaluation or discipline must be closed.

A public body must close meetings for preliminary consideration of allegations or charges against an individual subject to its authority.⁵¹ If the members of the public body conclude that discipline may be warranted as a result of those charges or allegations, further meetings or hearings relating to the charges or allegations must be open.⁵² Meetings must also be open at the request of the individual who is the subject of the meeting. If an outside investigator is hired, the meeting should be open because the public body has moved past the preliminary consideration of allegations or charges.⁵³

Statutes other than the open meeting law may permit or require closed meetings for certain local governmental bodies to conduct specific kinds of disciplinary hearings. For example, school board hearings held to discharge or demote a teacher are private unless the affected teacher wants a public hearing.⁵⁴

A public body may close a meeting to evaluate the performance of an individual who is subject to its authority. Before closing a meeting, the public body must identify the individual to be evaluated. The public body must summarize the conclusions of the evaluation at its next open meeting. An evaluation meeting must be open at the request of the subject of the meeting.⁵⁵

⁴⁹ Minn. Stat. § 13D.05, subd. 1.

⁵⁰ Minn. Stat. § 13D.01, subd. 2. This subdivision also says that the law does not apply to meetings of the Commissioner of Corrections, which does not really make sense since such a meeting is not of a multimember body. It may be explained by the legislative history, however. Until 1982, the exception was for meetings of the Corrections Board, a multimember body. A 1983 instruction directed the Revisor of Statutes to change “Corrections Board” to “Commissioner of Corrections” throughout statutes. Laws 1983, ch. 274, § 18.

The Commissioner of Administration found that the Tower City Council violated the open meeting law when it did not open a meeting to the public, claiming that hiring an outside investigator was still a primary consideration of employee misconduct allegations under section 13D.05.

⁵⁴ Minn. Stat. § 122A.41, subd. 9.

⁵⁵ Minn. Stat. § 13D.05, subd. 3.

A meeting may be closed to discuss labor negotiations strategy.

The open meeting law permits a public body to hold a closed meeting to discuss strategy and proposals for labor negotiations conducted under the Public Employment Labor Relations Act.⁵⁶ The statute specifies procedures for tape-recording of these meetings, and for the recordings to become public when negotiations are completed.⁵⁷ Another law permits the Commissioner of the Bureau of Mediation Services to close negotiations and mediation sessions between public employers and public employees. These negotiations are public meetings, unless the commissioner closes them.⁵⁸

The law permits closed meetings based on a limited attorney-client privilege.

In 1976, the Minnesota Supreme Court held that there is a limited exception, based on the attorney-client privilege, for meetings to discuss strategy for threatened or pending litigation.⁵⁹

In 1990, the legislature added the attorney-client exception to the open meeting law.⁶⁰ Although the statute is not limited, the courts have since held that the scope of the exception remains limited in relation to the open meeting law.⁶¹ A balancing test must be applied, weighing the purposes of attorney-client privilege against the purposes for holding open meetings.⁶²

The attorney-client privilege exception does not apply to a mere request for general legal advice. Nor does it apply when a governing body seeks to discuss with its attorney the strengths

The court of appeals did not accept the argument that the statutory exception encompassed the full attorney-client privilege because that would result in the exception swallowing the rule in favor of open meetings. In 2002, the Minnesota Supreme Court restated that the attorney-client privilege exception only applies when the purposes for the exception outweigh the purposes of the open meeting law. In that case, the city council was threatened with a lawsuit if it did not grant a request. The court found that the threat of a lawsuit did not warrant closing the meeting. Prior Lake American v. Mader, 642 N.W.2d 729 (Minn. 2002) (en banc). Cf. Brainerd Daily Dispatch v. Dehen, 693 N.W.2d 435 (Minn. The commissioner concluded that the possibility of litigation was not enough to justify closing the meeting and "the public's right to hear the discussion about the contract outweighed the need for absolute confidentiality."

and weaknesses of a proposed legislative enactment (like a city ordinance) that may lead to future lawsuits because that can be viewed as general legal advice. Furthermore, discussion of proposed legislation is just the sort of discussion that should be public.⁶³ In order to close a meeting under the attorney-client privilege exception, the governing body must give a particularized statement describing the subject to be discussed. A general statement that the meeting is being closed to discuss pending or threatened litigation is not sufficient.⁶⁴

A meeting may be closed to address certain security issues.

If disclosure of the information discussed would pose a danger to public safety or compromise security procedures or responses, a meeting may be closed to:

- receive security briefings and reports;
- discuss issues related to security systems;
- discuss emergency response procedures; and
- discuss security deficiencies in or recommendations regarding public services, infrastructure, and facilities.

Before closing a meeting, the public body must refer to the facilities, systems, procedures, services, or infrastructures to be considered during the closed meeting. A closed meeting must be tape-recorded at the expense of the governing body, and the recording must be preserved for at least four years.

Financial issues related to security matters must be discussed and all related financial decisions must be made at an open meeting.⁶⁵

A meeting may be closed to discuss certain issues relating to government property sales or purchases.

A public body may close a meeting to:

- determine the asking price for real or personal property to be sold by the government entity;
- review confidential or nonpublic appraisal data; and
- develop or consider offers or counteroffers for the purchase or sale of real or personal property.

Before holding a closed meeting, the public body must identify on the record the particular property that is the subject of the closed meeting. The proceedings must be tape-recorded at the expense of the public body. The recording must be preserved for eight years after the date of the meeting and made available to the public after all property discussed at the meeting has been purchased or sold or the governing body has abandoned the purchase or sale. The property that is the subject of the closed meeting must be specifically identified on the tape. A list of members and all other persons present at the closed meeting must be made available to the public after the closed meeting. If an action is brought claiming that public business other than discussions allowed under this exception was transacted at a closed meeting held during the time when the tape is not available to the public, the court would review the recording of the meeting in camera and either dismiss the action if the court finds no violation, or permit use of the recording at trial (subject to protective orders) if the court finds there is a violation.⁶⁶

An agreement reached that is based on an offer considered at a closed meeting is contingent on approval of the public body at an open meeting. The actual purchase or sale must be approved at an open meeting after the notice period required by statute or the governing body's internal procedures, and the purchase price or sale price is public data.⁶⁷

Other laws may authorize closed meetings under certain circumstances.

Statutes outside of the Minnesota Open Meeting Law⁶⁸ and session laws may provide that a meeting may be closed for a specific public body under certain circumstances. For example:

- Boards of public hospitals and certain health organizations may close meetings to discuss competitive market activities and contracts.⁶⁹
- The Supervised Release Board may meet in closed session to receive and review a victim's statement, at the request of the victim.⁷⁰
- The Public Employment Relations Board may close a meeting when the board is reviewing or deliberating on certain unfair labor practice charges, orders, and decisions.⁷¹

On-site inspections by town board members are not subject to the law.

The law does not apply to a gathering of town board members to perform on-site inspections, if the town has no employees or other staff able to perform the inspections and the town board is acting essentially in a staff capacity. The town board must make good faith efforts to provide notice of the inspections to the media that have filed a written request, including a telephone number, for notice. Notice must be by telephone or by any other method used to notify the members of the public body.⁷²

The law specifies how it relates to the Government Data Practices Act.

Except as specifically provided, public meetings may not be closed to discuss data that are not public data under the Government Data Practices Act.⁷³ Data that are not public may be discussed at an open meeting without liability, if the matter discussed is within the public body's authority and if it is reasonably necessary to conduct the business before the public body.⁷⁴ Because statute only authorizes the disclosure of not public data "reasonably necessary" to conduct the public body's item of business, the extent of the disclosure should be minimized. This may be accomplished by redactions or the use of pseudonyms.⁷⁵

A portion of a meeting must be closed if the following data are discussed:⁷⁶

- Data that would identify alleged victims or reporters of criminal sexual conduct, domestic abuse, or maltreatment of minors or vulnerable adults.
- Active investigative data collected by a law enforcement agency, or internal affairs data relating to alleged misconduct by law enforcement personnel.
- Certain types of educational, health, medical, welfare, or mental health data that are not public data.
- An individual's medical records governed by the Minnesota Health Records Act.⁷⁷

The legislature has addressed social media.

In 2014, the legislature added a provision relating to use of social media. "The use of social media by members of a public body does not violate this chapter so long as the social media use is limited to exchanges with all members of the general public. For purposes of this section, e-mail is not considered a type of social media."⁷⁸ "Social media" is not defined.

Penalties

The open meeting law provides a civil penalty of up to $300 for intentional violation.⁷⁹ A person who is found to have intentionally violated the law in three or more legal actions involving the same governmental body forfeits the right to serve on that body for a time equal to the term the person was serving. The Minnesota Supreme Court has held that this removal provision is constitutional as to removal of elected officials only if the conduct constitutes malfeasance or nonfeasance and provided that the violations occurred after the person had a reasonable amount of time to learn the responsibilities of office.⁸⁰

A public body may not pay a civil penalty on behalf of a person who violated the law. However, a public body may pay any costs, disbursements, or attorney fees incurred by or awarded against a member of the body in an action under the open meeting law if the member was found not guilty of a violation.⁸¹

A court may award reasonable costs, disbursements, and reasonable attorney fees of up to $13,000 to any party in an action under the open meeting law. However, the following conditions apply:

- A court may award costs and attorney fees to a defendant only if it finds that the action was frivolous and without merit.
- A court may award monetary penalties or attorney fees against a member of a public body only if the court finds there was an intent to violate the open meeting law.

The court must award reasonable attorney fees to a prevailing plaintiff if the public body was also the subject of a prior written opinion issued by the Commissioner of Administration, and the court finds that the opinion is directly related to the cause of action being litigated and that the public body did not follow the opinion.⁸²

The appropriate mechanism to enforce the open meeting law is to bring an action in district court seeking injunctive relief or damages. The statute does not provide for a declaratory judgment action.⁸³

The Minnesota Supreme Court has held that actions taken at a meeting held in violation of the open meeting law are not invalid or rescindable.⁸⁴

- The Commissioner of Administration⁸⁶

An individual may seek advice from two sources:

- The individual's attorney
- The Commissioner of Administration

An individual who disagrees with the manner in which members of a governing body perform their duties under the open meeting law may request the Commissioner of Administration to give a written opinion on the governing body's compliance with the law. The Department of Administration's Data Practices Office handles such requests.⁸⁷

The commissioner may decide not to issue an opinion. If the commissioner decides not to issue an opinion, the commissioner must notify the requester in writing within five days of receipt of the request. If the commissioner decides to issue an opinion, it must be done within 50 days of the request. The governing body must be allowed to explain how it performs its duties under the law.⁸⁸

Opinions of the Commissioner of Administration are not binding, but a court must give the opinions deference. However, a governing body that follows an opinion is not liable for fines, attorney's fees or any other penalty, or forfeiture of office.⁸⁹

The Data Practices Office maintains a searchable opinion library accessible to the public on its website.⁹⁰

210 SCHOOL BOARD MEETINGS – OPEN AND CLOSED

I. PURPOSE

- A. The school board embraces the philosophy of openness in the conduct of its business, in the belief that openness produces better programs, more efficiency in administration of programs, and an organization more responsive to public interest and less susceptible to private interest. The school board shall conduct its business under a presumption of openness. At the same time, the school board recognizes and respects the privacy rights of individuals as provided by law. The school board also recognizes that there are certain exceptions to the Minnesota Open Meeting Law as recognized in statute where it has been determined that, in limited circumstances, the public interest is best served by closing a meeting of the school board.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

- A. Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute, all meetings of the school board, including executive sessions, shall be open to the public.
- B. Meetings shall be closed only when expressly authorized by law.

210-R SCHOOL BOARD MEETINGS – OPEN AND CLOSED REGULATIONS

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of these regulations is to provide guidelines to assure the rights of the public to be present at school board meetings, while also protecting the individual's rights to privacy under law, and to close meetings when the public interest so requires as recognized by law.

II. DEFINITION

“Meeting” means a gathering of at least a quorum or more members of the school board, or quorum of a committee or subcommittee of school board members, at which members discuss, decide, or receive information as a group on issues relating to the official business of the school board. The term does not include a chance or social gathering or the use of social media by members of a public body so long as the social media use is limited to exchanges with all members of the general public. For purposes of the Open Meeting Law, social media does not include e-mail.

III. PROCEDURES

A. Meetings

1. Regular Meetings

A schedule of the regular meetings of the school board shall be kept on file at its primary offices. If the school board decides to hold a regular meeting at a time or place different from the time or place stated in its schedule, it shall give the same notice of the meeting as for a special meeting.

2. Special Meetings

- a. For a special meeting, the school board shall post written notice of the date, time, place, and purpose of the meeting on the principal bulletin board of the school district or on the door of the school board's usual meeting room if there is no principal bulletin board. The school board's actions at the special meeting are limited to those topics included in the notice.
- b. The notice shall also be emailed or otherwise delivered to each person who has filed a written request for notice of special meetings.

- c. This notice shall be posted and mailed or delivered at least three days before the date of the meeting. As an alternative to emailing or otherwise delivering notice to persons who have filed a written request, the school board may publish the notice once, at least three days before the meeting, in the official newspaper of the school district or, if none, in a qualified newspaper of general circulation within the area of the school district.
- d. A person filing a request for notice of special meetings may limit the request to particular subjects, in which case the school board is required to send notice to that person only concerning those particular subjects.
- e. The school board will establish an expiration date on requests for notice of special meetings and require refiling once each year. Not more than 60 days before the expiration date of request for notice, the school board shall send notice of the refiling requirement to each person who filed during the preceding year.

3. Emergency Meetings

- a. An emergency meeting is a special meeting called because of circumstances that, in the judgment of the school board, require immediate consideration.
- b. If matters not directly related to the emergency are discussed or acted upon, the minutes of the meeting shall include a specific description of those matters.
- c. The school board shall make good faith efforts to provide notice of the emergency meeting to each news medium that has filed a written request for notice if the request includes the news medium's telephone number.
- d. Notice of the emergency meeting shall be given by telephone or any other method used to notify the members of the school board.
- e. Notice shall be provided to each news medium which has filed a written request for notice as soon as reasonably practicable after notice has been given to the school board members.
- f. Notice shall include the subject of the meeting.
- g. Posted or published notice of an emergency meeting shall not be required.
- h. The notice requirements for an emergency meeting as set forth in this policy shall supersede any other statutory notice requirement for a special meeting that is an emergency meeting.

4. Recessed or Continued Meetings

If a meeting is a recessed or continued session of a previous meeting, and the time and place of the meeting was established during the previous meeting and recorded in the minutes of that meeting, then no further published or mailed notice is necessary.

5. Closed Meetings

The notice requirements of the Minnesota Open Meeting Law apply to closed meetings.

6. Actual Notice

If a person receives actual notice of a meeting of the school board at least 24 hours before the meeting, all notice requirements are satisfied with respect to that person, regardless of the method of receipt of notice.

7. Health Pandemic or Declared Emergency

In the event of a health pandemic or an emergency declared under Minn. Stat. Ch. 12, a meeting may be conducted by telephone or other electronic means in compliance with Minn. Stat. § 13D.021.

B. Votes

The votes of school board members shall be recorded in meeting minutes, and the minutes shall be available to the public during all normal business hours at the administrative offices of the school district.

C. Written Materials

1. In any open meeting, a copy of any printed materials, including electronic communications, relating to the agenda items prepared or distributed by the school board or its employees and distributed to or available to all school board members shall be available in the meeting room for inspection by the public while the school board considers their subject matter.
2. This provision does not apply to materials not classified by law as public, or to materials relating to the agenda items of a closed meeting.

D. Data

1. Meetings may not be closed merely because the data to be discussed are not public data.

2. Data that are not public data may be discussed at an open meeting if the disclosure relates to a matter within the scope of the school board's authority and is reasonably necessary to conduct the business or agenda item before the school board.
3. Data discussed at an open meeting retain the data's original classification; however, a record of the meeting, regardless of form, shall be public.

E. Closed Meetings

1. Labor Negotiations Strategy

- a. The school board may, by a majority vote in a public meeting, decide to hold a closed meeting to consider strategy for labor negotiations, including negotiation strategies or developments or discussion and review of labor negotiation proposals.
- b. A written roll of school board members and all other persons present at the closed meeting shall be made available to the public after the closed meeting. The proceedings shall be tape recorded, and the tape recording shall be preserved for two years after the contract discussed at the meeting is signed. The recording shall be made available to the public after all labor contracts are signed by the school board for the current budget period.

2. Sessions Closed by Bureau of Mediation Services

All negotiations, mediation sessions, and hearings between the school board and its employees or their respective representatives are public meetings. These meetings may be closed only by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Mediation Services (BMS). The use of recording devices, stenographic records, or other recording methods is prohibited in mediation meetings closed by the BMS.

3. Preliminary Consideration of Charges

The school board shall close one or more meetings for preliminary consideration of allegations or charges against an individual subject to its authority. If the school board members conclude that discipline of any nature may be warranted as a result of those specific charges or allegations, further meetings or hearings relating to those specific charges or allegations held after that conclusion is reached must be open. A meeting must also be open at the request of the individual who is the subject of the meeting. A closed meeting must be electronically recorded at the expense of the school district, and the recording must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting. The recording is not available to the public.

4. Performance Evaluations

The school board may close a meeting to evaluate the performance of an individual who is subject to its authority. The school board shall identify the individual to be evaluated prior to closing a meeting. At its next open meeting, the school board shall summarize its conclusions regarding the evaluation. A meeting must be open at the request of the individual who is the subject of the meeting. A closed meeting must be electronically recorded at the expense of the school district, and the recording must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting. The recording is not available to the public.

5. Attorney-Client Meeting

A meeting may be closed if permitted by the attorney-client privilege. Attorney-client privilege applies when litigation is imminent or threatened, or when the school board needs advice above the level of general legal advice, i.e., regarding specific acts and their legal consequences. A meeting may be closed to seek legal advice concerning litigation strategy, but the mere threat that litigation might be a consequence of deciding a matter one way or another does not, by itself, justify closing the meeting. The motion to close the meeting must specifically describe the matter to be discussed at the closed meeting, subject to relevant privacy and confidentiality considerations under state and federal law. The law does not require that such a meeting be recorded.

6. Dismissal Hearing

- a. A hearing on the dismissal of a licensed teacher shall be public or private at the teacher's discretion. A hearing regarding placement of teachers on unrequested leave of absence shall be public.
- b. A hearing on dismissal of a student pursuant to the Pupil Fair Dismissal Act shall be closed unless the pupil, parent or guardian requests an open hearing.
- c. To the extent a teacher or student dismissal hearing is held before the school board and is closed, the closed meeting must be electronically recorded at the expense of the school district, and the recording must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting. The recording is not available to the public.

7. Coaches: Opportunity to Respond

- a. If the school board has declined to renew the coaching contract of a licensed or nonlicensed head varsity coach, it must notify the coach within 14 days of that decision.

- b. If the coach requests the reasons for the nonrenewal, the school board must give the coach the reasons in writing within 10 days of receiving the request.
- c. On the request of the coach, the school board must provide the coach with a reasonable opportunity to respond to the reasons at a school board meeting.
- d. The meeting may be open or closed at the election of the coach unless the meeting is closed as required by Minn. Stat. § 13D.05, Subd. 2, to discuss educational or certain other nonpublic data.
- e. A closed meeting must be electronically recorded at the expense of the school district, and the recording must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting. The recording is not available to the public.

8. Meetings to Discuss Certain Not Public Data

Any portion of a meeting must be closed if the following types of data are discussed:

- a. data that would identify alleged victims or reporters of criminal sexual conduct, domestic abuse, or maltreatment of minors or vulnerable adults;
- b. active investigative data collected or created by a law enforcement agency;
- c. educational data, health data, medical data, welfare data, or mental health data that are not public data; or
- d. an individual's personal medical records.
- e. A closed meeting must be electronically recorded at the expense of the school district, and the recording must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting. The recording is not available to the public.

9. Purchase and Sale of Property

- a. The school board may close a meeting:
 - (1) to determine the asking price for real or personal property to be sold by the school district;
 - (2) to review confidential or nonpublic appraisal data; and
 - (3) to develop or consider offers or counteroffers for the purchase or sale of real or personal property.

- b. Before closing the meeting, the school board must identify on the record the particular real or personal property that is the subject of the closed meeting.
- c. The closed meeting must be tape recorded at the expense of the school district. The tape must be preserved for eight years after the date of the meeting and be made available to the public after all real or personal property discussed at the meeting has been purchased or sold or the school board has abandoned the purchase or sale. The real or personal property that is the subject of the closed meeting must be specifically identified on the tape. A list of school board members and all other persons present at the closed meeting must be made available to the public after the closed meeting.
- d. An agreement reached that is based on an offer considered at a closed meeting is contingent on its approval by the school board at an open meeting. The actual purchase or sale must be approved at an open meeting and the purchase price or sale price is public data.

10. Security Matters

- a. The school board may close a meeting to receive security briefings and reports, to discuss issues related to security systems, to discuss emergency response procedures, and to discuss security deficiencies in or recommendations regarding public services, infrastructure, and facilities, if disclosure of the information discussed would pose a danger to public safety or compromise security procedures or responses.
- b. Financial issues related to security matters must be discussed and all related financial decisions must be made at an open meeting.
- c. Before closing a meeting, the school board must refer to the facilities, systems, procedures, services, or infrastructures to be considered during the closed meeting.
- d. The closed meeting must be tape recorded at the expense of the school district and the recording must be preserved for at least four years.

11. Other Meetings

Other meetings shall be closed as provided by law, except as provided above. A closed meeting must be electronically recorded at the expense of the school district, and the recording must be preserved for at least three years after the date of the meeting. The recording is not available to the public.

F. Procedures for Closing a Meeting

The school board shall provide notice of a closed meeting just as for an open meeting. Before closing a meeting, the school board shall state on the record the specific authority permitting the meeting to be closed and shall describe the subject to be discussed.

IV. RECORDS AND MINUTES

- A. The Board Clerk is legally responsible for the official Board records; however, the Board delegates to the Superintendent the responsibility for providing the personnel and equipment for Board meeting record keeping.
- B. Published minutes will list a summary of Board Action and other business items. Individual gifts will not be published, but the official packets available in the District Administration Building will be retained with complete information.
- C. Minutes of all Regular, Special and Closed Board Meetings will be kept on file in the Administration Building. Official minutes will be bound in some manner, and/or digitally filed on the district network, and maintained as a permanent record in the Administration Building.

212 PUBLIC PARTICIPATION IN SCHOOL BOARD MEETINGS

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to ensure open and orderly public discussion as well as to protect the due processes and privacy rights of individuals under the law.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

- A. The School Board recognizes the value of participation by the public in deliberations and decisions on School District matters. At the same time, the School Board recognizes the importance of conducting orderly and efficient proceedings, with opportunity for expression of all participants' respective views.
- B. All citizens, including students, of the school district have a right to an opportunity to be heard by the School Board. The School Board may adopt reasonable time, place, and manner restrictions on public expression in order to facilitate input by all interested parties. Guidelines for Interaction

1. Board members will keep one another and the Superintendent informed about issues that arise. There will be no surprises in Board Meetings or Board Work Sessions.

 - a. The Superintendent may:

5. Board members and the Board Chair will ensure that there is communication with all Board members about assignments, committees, etc. that arise.

Elaborations

1. Partisan Politics- The Board agrees to the following principles regarding partisan or party politics:
 - a. It is important to subordinate partisan or party politics to the school districts interests.
 - b. There is a difference between the work of the Legislative Action Committee and party politics. The former promotes the School District's interests with the state legislature.
 - c. It is important that Board members not be partisan or be seen as partisan.
 - d. One of the Board's strengths is that it is not partisan.
2. Sensitivity to Role- The Board acknowledges the difficulty of separating their job as Board members from their role as parents or community members. Board members agree that they need to remind constituents or staff when they are speaking as Board members and when they are addressing issues as parents or community members
In addition, Board members agreed they need to remind constituents and staff that when they are speaking to an issue or listening to feedback, they are speaking as one member of the Board. They are not speaking for the Board.

Established February 7, 2004 and re-established on January 18, 2006

Partisan Politics Guidelines

1. It is important to subordinate partisan or party politics to the interests of the School District.
2. It is important that Board members not let partisan or political involvement interfere with proper performance of School Board duties
3. There is a difference between the work of the Legislative Action Committee and party politics. The LAC promotes legislation in the School District's interest, rather than any political party interest.
4. One of the Board's great strengths is that it is not partisan.

The following are only examples of what is or isn't "O.K."- Not an all-inclusive list. If a Board member is in doubt, check it out with the Board Chair, who can then decide whether or not the question warrants further discussion with the whole Board.

Some examples of "O.K." types of partisan involvement:

- Political party membership
- Attendance at political party caucus or convention
- Endorsing a candidate for political office as an individual
- Contributing financially to a candidate's campaign
- "Behind the scene" involvement in a partisan candidate's campaign for elective office
- Running for another elected office with party endorsement

Not "O.K."

- Seeking or accepting party endorsement when running for the School Board
- Endorsing a candidate for political office as a Board member
- Visible, active involvement in the campaign of a party endorsed candidate for elective office (i.e. campaign or fund raising chair)
- Letting partisan involvement impact the working relationship with other Board members

208 SCHOOL BOARD COMMITTEES AND APPOINTMENTS

I. PURPOSE

The purpose of this policy is to provide for the structure and operation of committees and subcommittees of the School Board, and guidance for School Board members appointed to other councils, committees, and local/state/national organizations.

II. GENERAL STATEMENT OF POLICY

The School Board believes that Board committees and appointments enable board members to delve into governance matters in greater detail than is possible at the full board level. In-depth committee work builds governing expertise among board members, while also strengthening their sense of ownership and commitment, which ultimately improves the quality of board decision making. Board decisions that are supported by detailed standing committee work are firmer because of the ownership that is built at the committee level.

- A. It is the policy of the school board to designate standing school board committees or subcommittees when it is determined that a committee process facilitates the mission of the school board.
1. The school board has determined that certain permanent standing committees, as described in this policy, do facilitate the operation of the school board and the school district.
 2. A school board committee or subcommittee will be formed by school board resolution which shall outline the duties and purpose of the committee or subcommittee.
 3. A committee or subcommittee is advisory in nature and has only such authority as specified by the school board.
 4. The school board will receive reports or recommendations from a committee or subcommittee for consideration. The school board, however, retains the right and has the duty to make all final decisions related to such reports or recommendations.
 5. The school board also may establish ad hoc committees for specific purposes as it deems appropriate.
- B. Similarly, the school board has determined that appointments to other committees, councils and organizations facilitates the operation of the School Board and the school district.

1. The School Board will appoint board members to serve as liaisons to these committees and organizations. No more than three board members shall be designated to any one appointment, unless the board attends on a rotating schedule.
2. When appropriate, a board member may serve on the board of another organization.

III. STANDING COMMITTEES

- A. The school board hereby appoints the following standing committees:
 1. Finance and Business
 2. Human Resource Services
 3. Teaching and Learning
 4. Stakeholder Relations
