- Lifetime Service Award - Martha McGuire

Superintendent McKenna presented Martha McGuire a plaque for her service to be recognized in front of her family, the board of education, and community members.

IV.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS - PRINCIPAL REPORTS

- Angie Nichols - Lakeland Elementary

- Josh Haggerty - Cherryland Middle School
  - Jack Young - Elk Rapids High School/Sunrise Academy
- Jack Young recognized Nick Anderson and the high school band for their exceptional performances and overall representation of Elk Rapids High School. Principal Young also gave an update on the new Social Emotional curriculum (TRAILS) that will be in place for the upcoming school year.

Josh Haggerty updated the board on athletic/club happenings at CMS. Powerlifting, Girls Basketball, SnowChasers. CMS just finished NWEA math and reading testing. There are no personnel changes at this time at CMS but there is a new position available for the Library/Media Center/Recess Aide paraprofessional with the completion of the new space. CMS will host their Student Showcase Night on April 10, 2025.

Angie Nichols shared with the board that Patent/Teacher conferences are this week. Lakeland has also received a new Drum Circle and new football goal posts for the playground. Principal Nichols would like to thank Rich Hopkins and the teams that came out to install the new water bottle filling stations under the grant. Lakeland also held a very successful fundraiser in February that was put on by their very active PTO.

IX. DISCUSSION ITEMS:

- Potential Board Meeting Date Change
- Non-Homestead Millage Update
- Roof Repairs at ERHS
- Transportation: Bus Fleet Replacement Plan

Potential Board Meeting Date Change - Superintendent McKenna updated the board on a new timeline that was suggested by our auditing firm for best business practices to hold board meetings traditionally on the second Monday of the month. It was discussed to start this new schedule in July 2025. An updated calendar will be brought to the board next month for approval.

Non-Homestead Millage Update - An article went out the ER News for this week's publication, Superintendent McKenna will meet with the Chamber on Friday, and Coffee meetings with McKenna will start next week. An informative flyer will be mailed in April to all voters. The district has been reviewing the ballots for our local townships for the May 6, 2025 special election.

Roof Repairs at ERHS - Superintendent McKenna stated that the roof in need of some significant repairs is a relatively new revelation with the amount of snow this winter. The areas needing the most attention would be over the band room and near the auxiliary gym and hallway near the new office space. The district will look into releasing an RFP to seek contractors to get it repaired.

Transportation: Bus Fleet Replacement Plan - Handout from Superintendent McKenna

X. SUPERINTENDENT REPORT

- School Cancellation Update
- Construction Update

School Cancellation Update - Superintendent McKenna reported that the district has called 7 weather-related cancellations at this point this year. It has also been communicated to families that the district will consider 2-Hour Delays on days when that seems appropriate.

Construction Update - CMS is enjoying their 3rd week in the new wing. The next wing is already under demolition and there will be a building Grand Opening when all of the punchlist items are completed.
