Education leaders believe in, value, and are committed to

- Every student learning
- Collaboration with all stakeholders
- Examining assumptions and beliefs
- High expectations for all students and staff
- Continuous improvement for all based on evidence

Narrative

Education leaders are accountable and have unique responsibilities for developing and implementing a shared vision of learning to guide organizational decisions and actions. The shared vision assists educators and students to continually develop the knowledge, skills and dispositions to live and succeed as global citizens. Education leaders guide a process for developing, monitoring, and refining a shared vision, strong mission, and goals that are high and achievable for every student when provided with effective learning opportunities.

The vision, mission, and goals include a global perspective and become the beliefs of the school community in which all students achieve. The vision, mission, and goals become the touchstone for decisions, strategic planning, and change processes. They are regularly reviewed and refined, using varied sources of information and ongoing data analysis.

To be effective, processes of establishing vision, mission, and goals incorporate diverse perspectives in the broader school community and create consensus to which all can commit. While leaders engage others in developing and implementing the vision, mission, and goals, it is undeniably their responsibility to also advocate for and act to increase equity and social justice.

Element A: High Expectations for All

2. Uses data, research, and best practice to shape programs and activities and regularly assesses their effects.
3. Analyzes data and collaborates with stakeholders in planning and carrying out changes in programs and activities.
4. Identifies and addresses barriers to achieving the vision, mission, and goals.
5. Seeks and aligns resources to achieve the vision, mission, and goals.

PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION 2: Teaching and Learning

Education leaders ensure the success and achievement of all students by monitoring and continuously improving teaching and learning.

Dispositions exemplified in Expectation 2:

Education leaders believe in, value, and are committed to

- Learning as the fundamental purpose of school
- Inspiring a life-long love of learning
- High expectations for all
- Standards-based curriculum and challenging instruction
- Diversity as an asset
- Continuous professional growth and development to support and broaden learning
- Collaboration with all stakeholders

Narrative

In a strong professional culture, leaders share responsibilities to provide quality, effectiveness, and coherence across all components of the instructional system. Leaders are responsible for a professional culture in which learning opportunities are targeted to the vision, mission, and goals and include a global perspective. Instruction is differentiated to provide opportunities to challenge all students to achieve.

A strong professional culture includes professional development and leadership opportunities. As a supervisor and evaluator the school leader provides timely, accurate, and specific feedback and time for reflective practice.

Educators collaboratively and strategically plan their professional learning to meet student needs. Leaders engage in continuous inquiry about the effectiveness of curricular and instructional practices and work collaboratively with staff and other educational leaders to improve student learning.

Element A: Strong Professional Culture

Leaders develop a strong professional culture which leads to quality instruction focused on student learning and the strengthening of professional competencies.

Sec. 10-145d-400a. Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators

(a) Preamble

The Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators is a set of principles which the education profession expects its members to honor and follow. These principles set forth, on behalf of the education profession and the public it serves, standards to guide conduct and the judicious appraisal of conduct in situations that have professional and ethical implications. The Code adheres to the fundamental belief that the student is the foremost reason for the existence of the profession.

The education profession is vested by the public with a trust and responsibility requiring the highest ideals of professionalism. Therefore, the educator accepts both the public trust and the responsibilities to practice the profession according to the highest possible degree of ethical conduct and standards. Such responsibilities include the commitment to the students, the profession, the community and the family.

Consistent with applicable law, the Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators shall serve as a basis for decisions on issues pertaining to certification and employment. The code shall apply to all educators holding, applying or completing preparation for a certificate, authorization, or permit or other credential from the State Board of Education. For the purposes of this section, "educator" includes superintendents, administrators, teachers, special services professionals, coaches, substitute teachers, and paraprofessionals.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

(b) Responsibility to the student

(1) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the student shall:

- (A) Recognize, respect and uphold the dignity and worth of students as individual human beings and, therefore, deal justly and considerately with students;
- (B) Engage students in pursuit of truth, knowledge, and wisdom and provide access to all points of view without deliberate distortion of subject matter;
- (C) Nurture in students lifelong respect and compassion for themselves and other human beings regardless of race, ethnic origin, gender, social class, disability, religion, or sexual orientation;
- (D) Foster in students the full understanding, application, and preservation of democratic principles and processes;

- (H) Promote the employment of only qualified and fully certified, authorized, or permitted educators;
- (I) Encourage promising, qualified, and competent individuals to enter the profession;
- (J) Maintain the confidentiality of information concerning colleagues and dispense such information only when prescribed or directed by federal or state law or professional practice;
- (K) Honor professional contracts until fulfillment, release, or dissolution mutually agreed upon by all parties to contract;
- (L) Create a culture that encourages purposeful collaboration and dialogue among all stakeholders;
- (M) Promote and maintain ongoing communication among all stakeholders; and
- (N) Provide effective leadership to ensure continuous focus on student achievement.

(d) Responsibility to the community

(1) The professional educator, in full recognition of the public trust vested in the profession, shall:

- (A) Be cognizant of the influence of educators upon the community-at-large, and obey local, state, and national laws;
- (B) Encourage the community to exercise its responsibility to be involved in the formulation of educational policy;
- (C) Promote the principles and ideals of democratic citizenship; and
- (D) Endeavor to secure equal educational opportunities for all students.

(e) Responsibility to the Student's Family

(1) The professional educator in recognition of the public trust vested in the profession, shall:

- (A) Respect the dignity of each family, its culture, customs, and beliefs;
- (B) Promote, respond, and maintain appropriate communications with the family, staff, and administration;
- (C) Consider the family's concerns and perspectives on issues involving its children; and
- (D) Encourage participation of the family in the educational process.

UNPROFESSIONAL CONDUCT*

(f) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the student, shall not:

- (A) Abuse his or her position as a professional with students for private advantage;
- (B) Discriminate against students;
- (C) Sexually or physically harass or abuse students;
- (D) Emotionally abuse students; or
- (E) Engage in any misconduct which would put students at risk.

(g) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the profession, shall not:

- (A) Obtain a certificate, authorization, permit or other credential issued by the state board of education or obtain employment by misrepresentation, forgery or fraud;
- (B) Accept any gratuity, gift or favor that would impair or influence professional decisions or actions;
- (C) Misrepresent his, her or another's professional qualifications or competencies;
- (D) Sexually, physically or emotionally harass or abuse district employees;
- (E) Misuse district funds and/or district property; or
- (F) Engage in any misconduct which would impair his or her ability to serve effectively in the profession.

(h) The professional educator, in full recognition of the public trust vested in the profession, shall not:

- (A) Exploit the educational institution for personal gain;
- (B) Be convicted in a court of law of a crime involving moral turpitude or of any crime of such nature that violates such public trust; or
- (C) Shall not knowingly misrepresent facts or make false statements.

*Unprofessional conduct is not limited to the above. When in doubt regarding professional conduct (choice of actions) please seek advice from your school district.

(i) This code shall be reviewed for potential revision concurrently with the revision of the Regulations Concerning State Educator Certificates, Permits and Authorizations, and by the Connecticut Advisory Councils for Administrator and Teacher Professional Standards. As a part of such reviews, a process shall be established to receive input and comment from all interested parties.

Think About

Education leaders are accountable and have unique responsibilities for developing and implementing a shared vision of learning to guide organizational decisions and actions. The shared vision assists educators and students to continually develop the knowledge, skills and dispositions to live and succeed as global citizens.

Education leaders guide a process for developing, monitoring, and refining a shared vision, strong mission, and goals that are high and achievable for every student when provided with effective learning opportunities.

The vision, mission, and goals include a global perspective and become the beliefs of the school community in which all students achieve. The vision, mission, and goals become the touchstone for decisions, strategic planning, and change processes. They are regularly reviewed and refined, using varied sources of information and ongoing data analysis.

To be effective, processes of establishing vision, mission, and goals incorporate diverse perspectives in the broader school community and create consensus to which all can commit. While leaders engage others in developing and implementing the vision, mission, and goals, it is undeniably their responsibility to also advocate for and act to increase equity and social justice.

PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION 2: Teaching and Learning

The Superintendent of Windsor Public Schools ensures the success and achievement of all students by monitoring and continuously improving teaching and learning.

- Element A. Strong Professional Culture: The Superintendent develops a strong professional culture which leads to quality instruction focused on student learning and the strengthening of professional competencies.
- Element B. Curriculum and Instruction: The Superintendent understands and expects faculty to plan, implement, and evaluate standards-based curriculum and challenging instruction aligned with Connecticut and national standards.
- Element C. Assessment and Accountability: The Superintendent utilizes assessments, data systems, and accountability strategies to improve achievement, monitor and evaluate progress, and close achievement gaps.

Think About

In a strong professional culture, leaders share responsibilities to provide quality, effectiveness, and coherence across all components of the instructional system.

Leaders are responsible for a professional culture in which learning opportunities are targeted to the vision, mission, and goals and include a global perspective. Instruction is differentiated to provide opportunities to challenge all students to achieve.

A strong professional culture includes professional development and leadership opportunities. As a supervisor and evaluator the school leader provides timely, accurate, and specific feedback and time for reflective practice.

Educators collaboratively and strategically plan their professional learning to meet student needs. Leaders engage in continuous inquiry about the effectiveness of curricular and instructional practices and work collaboratively with staff and other educational leaders to improve student learning.

PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION 3: Organizational Systems and Safety

The Superintendent of Windsor Public Schools ensures the success and achievement of all students by managing organizational systems and resources for a safe, high-performing learning environment.

- Element A. Welfare and Safety of Students, Faculty and Staff: The Superintendent ensures a safe environment by addressing real and potential challenges to the physical and emotional safety and security of students, faculty and staff.
- Element B. Operational Systems: The Superintendent distributes responsibilities and supervises management structures and practices to improve teaching and learning.

- Element C. Fiscal and Human Resources: The Superintendent establishes and maintains an efficient and effective infrastructure for finance and personnel that operates in support of teaching and learning.

Think About

In order to ensure the success of all students and provide a high-performing learning environment, education leaders manage daily operations and environments through effective and efficient alignment of resources with the vision, mission, and goals.

Leaders identify and allocate resources equitably to promote the academic, physical, and emotional well-being of all students and staff.

Leaders address any conditions that might impede student and staff learning. They uphold laws and implement policies that protect the safety of students and staff.

Leaders promote and maintain a trustworthy, professional work environment by fulfilling their legal responsibilities, implementing policies, supporting due process, and protecting civil and human rights of all.

PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION 4: Families and Stakeholders

The Superintendent of Windsor Public Schools ensures the success and achievement of all students by collaborating with families and other stakeholders to respond to diverse community interests and needs and to mobilize community resources.

- Element A. Collaboration with Families and Community Members: The Superintendent ensures the success of all students by collaborating with families and other stakeholders.
- Element B. Community Interests and Needs: The Superintendent responds and contributes to community interests and needs to provide high quality education for students and their families.
- Element C. Community Resources: The Superintendent accesses resources shared among schools, districts, and communities in conjunction with other organizations and agencies that provide critical resources for children and families.

Think About

Connecticut school leaders exhibit professional conduct in accordance with Connecticut's Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators (Appendix A).

Leaders hold high expectations of themselves, students, and staff to ensure that all students have what they need to learn. They remove barriers to high-quality education that derive from economic, social, cultural, linguistic, physical, gender, or other sources of educational disadvantage or discrimination. By promoting social justice across highly diverse populations, leaders ensure that all students have equitable access to educational resources and opportunities.

Leaders create and sustain an educational culture of trust and openness. They promote reflection and dialogue about values, beliefs, and best practices.

Leaders are receptive to new ideas about how to improve learning for every student by engaging others in decision-making and monitoring the resulting consequences on students, staff, and the school community.

PERFORMANCE EXPECTATION 6: The Education System

The Superintendent of Windsor Public Schools ensures the success and achievement of all students and advocates for students, faculty and staff needs by influencing social, cultural, economic, legal and political contexts affecting education.

- Element A. Professional Influence: The Superintendent improves the broader social, cultural economic, legal, and political, contexts of education for all students and families.
- Element B. The Educational Policy Environment: The Superintendent upholds and contributes to policies and political support for excellence and equity in education.
- Element C. Policy Engagement: The Superintendent engages policymakers to inform and improve education policy.

Think About

In a variety of roles, leaders contribute special skills and insights to the cultural, economic, legal, political, and social well-being of educational organizations and environments.

Leaders understand that public schools belong to the public and contribute to the public good. They see schools and districts as part of larger local, state, and federal systems that support the success of every student, while increasing equity and social justice.

Leaders see education as an open system in which policies, goals, and resources extend beyond traditional ideas about organizational boundaries of schools or districts.

Leaders advocate for education and students in professional, social, economic, cultural, political and other arenas. They recognize how principles and structures of governance affect federal, state, and local policies and work to influence and interpret changing norms and policies to benefit all students. Building strong relationships with stakeholders and policymakers enables leaders to identify, respond to, and influence issues, public awareness, and policies.

Leaders who participate in the broader system strive to provide information and engage constituents with data to sustain progress and address needs.
