OVERALL COMMENTS

BOE Process for Superintendent Evaluation

The Board's evaluation of the Superintendent is an important governance tool that is designed to foster continuous improvement toward achievement of the mission and goals of the Board, and strengthen the Board/Superintendent relationship by promoting a shared understanding of roles, responsibility and objectives.

Board policy 2400, which sets out fully the purpose of the Board's evaluation of the Superintendent, is fully incorporated in this memo below for reference.

- ❖ The Board on January 10, 2013 approved an evaluation tool with performance expectations and criteria that was mutually agreeable to the Board and Superintendent.
- ❖ On January 14, 2013, the Superintendent submitted a written self-evaluation to Board.

The process will continue as follows:

- 1.) Board deliberates in executive session – Thursday, January 17
  - a. Each member shares his/her performance evaluation of the Superintendent
  - b. Board Chair tracks points of consensus
- 2.) Summary of performance evaluation – 3.a & b to be completed by Wednesday, January 23
  - a. Ensure the summary evaluation contains accurate information and accurately reflects performance
  - b. Assessment to be shared with Superintendent
  - c. Performance evaluation finalized – by January 31
- 3.) Contract extension and salary discussion – changes require Board vote – by January 31

This process could take 2-3 meetings. Process to conclude by Jan.31

Proposed Standards and Norms to Govern Discussion

- ❖ Discussion occurs in executive session
- ❖ Evaluate performance
- ❖ Site evidence to support observations/conclusions
- ❖ Areas identified for improvement should include recommendations
- ❖ Board should make every effort to seek consensus
- ❖ Conversation must be respectful in tone and tenor
- ❖ Assume each member is acting from positive and constructive intentions
- ❖ Monitor your own airtime
- ❖ Respect the group
- ❖ Respect questions
- ❖ Be prepared
- ❖ Attend to goals and objectives
- ❖ Honor expectation of confidentiality

It is the responsibility of the Board of Education to maintain and improve the quality of administration and instruction in the public school system. An effective working relationship between the Board and the Superintendent is essential to the successful operation of the school district. Therefore, the Board will formally evaluate the Superintendent each year in accordance with guidelines and criteria mutually determined and agreed to by the Board and the Superintendent.

The purposes of the evaluation will be:

1. To provide for effective leadership for the school system.
2. To establish and maintain a good working relationship between the Board and the Superintendent.
3. To clarify for the Superintendent his/her role in the school system as seen by the Board.
4. To clarify for all Board members the role of the Superintendent in the governance of the district.
5. To improve the Superintendent's performance by suggesting areas of responsibility and operating techniques that may be strengthened.
6. To give encouragement and commendation for work well done.
7. To record the appraisal of his/her performance and improvement.
8. To offer a guide for the Superintendent's self-appraisal of characteristics and skills.
9. To provide an opportunity for the Board and the Superintendent to review formally at periodic intervals, factors affecting the Superintendent's performance.
10. To offer a procedure for an objective and comprehensive appraisal at regular intervals.
11. To establish mutually agreed upon standards for continued employment.
12. To provide assistance in the development of the Superintendent's performance goals and priorities for the coming year.
13. To assist the Board in arranging for the Superintendent's salary and contract.

Annually the Board and Superintendent will mutually develop a set of performance goals based on the needs of the school system. The Superintendent's performance will be periodically reviewed in accordance with these specified goals.

The Board will evaluate the abilities and services of the Superintendent through a formal procedure at least once annually, in executive session.

The evaluation of any public employee is appropriately a part of the employee's personnel file, the disclosure of which would constitute an invasion of personal privacy. Therefore, under Section 1-19(b) of the Connecticut General Statutes, such information is excluded from public disclosure.

The assessment, whether oral or written, will be made on the basis of the Board's statements concerning the abilities needed by, and the responsibilities and duties to be discharged by the Superintendent. Board consensus on the Superintendent's abilities and performance in various areas will be made available to him/her, and discussed with him/her in an executive session.

Narrative

Education leaders are accountable and have unique responsibilities for developing and implementing a shared vision of learning to guide organizational decisions and actions. The shared vision assists educators and students to continually develop the knowledge, skills and dispositions to live and succeed as global citizens. Education leaders guide a process for developing, monitoring, and refining a shared vision, strong mission, and goals that are high and achievable for every student when provided with effective learning opportunities.

The vision, mission, and goals include a global perspective and become the beliefs of the school community in which all students achieve. The vision, mission, and goals become the touchstone for decisions, strategic planning, and change processes. They are regularly reviewed and refined, using varied sources of information and ongoing data analysis.

To be effective, processes of establishing vision, mission, and goals incorporate diverse perspectives in the broader school community and create consensus to which all can commit. While leaders engage others in developing and implementing the vision, mission, and goals, it is undeniably their responsibility to also advocate for and act to increase equity and social justice.

Sec. 10-145d-400a. Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators

(a) Preamble

The Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators is a set of principles which the education profession expects its members to honor and follow. These principles set forth, on behalf of the education profession and the public it serves, standards to guide conduct and the judicious appraisal of conduct in situations that have professional and ethical implications. The Code adheres to the fundamental belief that the student is the foremost reason for the existence of the profession.

The education profession is vested by the public with a trust and responsibility requiring the highest ideals of professionalism. Therefore, the educator accepts both the public trust and the responsibilities to practice the profession according to the highest possible degree of ethical conduct and standards. Such responsibilities include the commitment to the students, the profession, the community and the family.

Consistent with applicable law, the Code of Professional Responsibility for Educators shall serve as a basis for decisions on issues pertaining to certification and employment. The code shall apply to all educators holding, applying or completing preparation for a certificate, authorization, or permit or other credential from the State Board of Education. For the purposes of this section, "educator" includes superintendents, administrators, teachers, special services professionals, coaches, substitute teachers, and paraprofessionals.

PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

(b) Responsibility to the student

(1) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the student shall:

- (A) Recognize, respect and uphold the dignity and worth of students as individual human beings and, therefore, deal justly and considerately with students;
- (B) Engage students in pursuit of truth, knowledge, and wisdom and provide access to all points of view without deliberate distortion of subject matter;
- (C) Nurture in students lifelong respect and compassion for themselves and other human beings regardless of race, ethnic origin, gender, social class, disability, religion, or sexual orientation;
- (D) Foster in students the full understanding, application, and preservation of democratic principles and processes;
- (E) Guide students to acquire the requisite skills and understanding for participatory citizenship and to realize their obligation to be worthy and contributing members of society;
- (F) Assist students in the formulation of worthy, positive goals;
- (G) Promote the right and freedom of students to learn, explore ideas, develop critical thinking, problem-solving, and necessary learning skills to acquire the knowledge needed to achieve their full potential;
- (H) Remain steadfast in guaranteeing equal opportunity for quality education for all students;
- (I) Maintain the confidentiality of information concerning students obtained in the proper course of educational process, and dispense such information only when prescribed or directed by federal or state law or professional practice;
- (J) Create an emotionally and physically safe and healthy learning environment for all students; and
- (K) Apply discipline promptly, impartially, appropriately and with compassion.

(c) Responsibility to the profession

(1) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the profession, shall:

- (A) Conduct himself or herself as a professional realizing that his or her action reflects directly upon the status and substance of the profession;
- (B) Uphold the professional educator's right to serve effectively;
- (C) Uphold the principle of academic freedom;
- (D) Strive to exercise the highest level of professional judgment;
- (E) Engage in professional learning to promote and implement research-based best educational practices;
- (F) Assume responsibility for his or her professional development;
- (G) Encourage the participation of educators in the process of educational decision making;
- (H) Promote the employment of only qualified and fully certified, authorized, or permitted educators;
- (I) Encourage promising, qualified, and competent individuals to enter the profession;
- (J) Maintain the confidentiality of information concerning colleagues and dispense such information only when prescribed or directed by federal or state law or professional practice;
- (K) Honor professional contracts until fulfillment, release, or dissolution mutually agreed upon by all parties to contract;
- (L) Create a culture that encourages purposeful collaboration and dialogue among all stakeholders;
- (M) Promote and maintain ongoing communication among all stakeholders; and
- (N) Provide effective leadership to ensure continuous focus on student achievement.

(d) Responsibility to the community

(1) The professional educator, in full recognition of the public trust vested in the profession, shall:

- (A) Be cognizant of the influence of educators upon the community-at-large, and obey local, state, and national laws;
- (B) Encourage the community to exercise its responsibility to be involved in the formulation of educational policy;
- (C) Promote the principles and ideals of democratic citizenship; and
- (D) Endeavor to secure equal educational opportunities for all students.

(e) Responsibility to the Student's Family

(1) The professional educator in recognition of the public trust vested in the profession, shall:

- (A) Respect the dignity of each family, its culture, customs, and beliefs;
- (B) Promote, respond, and maintain appropriate communications with the family, staff, and administration;
- (C) Consider the family's concerns and perspectives on issues involving its children; and
- (D) Encourage participation of the family in the educational process.

UNPROFESSIONAL CONDUCT***

(f) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the student, shall not:

- (A) Abuse his or her position as a professional with students for private advantage;
- (B) Discriminate against students;
- (C) Sexually or physically harass or abuse students;
- (D) Emotionally abuse students; or
- (E) Engage in any misconduct which would put students at risk.

(g) The professional educator, in full recognition of his or her obligation to the profession, shall not:

- (A) Obtain a certificate, authorization, permit or other credential issued by the state board of education or obtain employment by misrepresentation, forgery or fraud;
- (B) Accept any gratuity, gift or favor that would impair or influence professional decisions or actions;
- (C) Misrepresent his, her or another's professional qualifications or competencies;
- (D) Sexually, physically or emotionally harass or abuse district employees;
- (E) Misuse district funds and/or district property; or
- (F) Engage in any misconduct which would impair his or her ability to serve effectively in the profession.

(h) The professional educator, in full recognition of the public trust vested in the profession, shall not:

- (A) Exploit the educational institution for personal gain;
- (B) Be convicted in a court of law of a crime involving moral turpitude or of any crime of such nature that violates such public trust; or
- (C) Shall not knowingly misrepresent facts or make false statements.

*Unprofessional conduct is not limited to the above. When in doubt regarding professional conduct (choice of actions) please seek advice from your school district.

(i) This code shall be reviewed for potential revision concurrently with the revision of the Regulations Concerning State Educator Certificates, Permits and Authorizations, and by the Connecticut Advisory Councils for Administrator and Teacher Professional Standards. As a part of such reviews, a process shall be established to receive input and comment from all interested parties.
