WINDSOR BOARD OF EDUCATION

AGENDA ITEM

For Consideration by the Board of Education at the Meeting of: June 20, 2023

Prepared By: Dr. Hill

Presented By: David Furie, Dr. Noha Hady

Attachments: N/A

Subject: WHS Juried Art Show Awards

Background:

The Windsor High School Art Department held their art show this past May in the Windsor High School library which included Art, CTE and Fashion students. As part of the awards, BOE President Furie, Dr. Hill, and Mr. Parker, Principal of Windsor High School, selected individual student work which will be professionally framed and displayed as part of their permanent collection. Here are the 2023 Purchase Prizes:

Board of Education Purchase Prize: Nicholas Dennis

For the Board of Education Purchase Prize, President Furie selected work by Nicholas Dennis. His graphic design, “Panda Wa Panda Janai!”, focuses on geometrical symmetry and his favorite animal, a panda. With pandas being prominent in Asia, Nicholas chose to incorporate the panda to a character that was in the Japanese anime Jujutsu Kaisen- which was a panda. And as the panda says, “Panda... is not a Panda!” (Panda Wa Panda Janai). Nicholas will be attending UCONN and majoring in Graphic Design.

Superintendent’s Purchase Prizes: Tyler Hall and Selma Saeedosman

This year, Dr. Hill selected two Purchase Prize winners who demonstrate the breadth of our art programs with Tyler Hall showing where our students find strength in his ceramic piece and Selma Saeedosman showing where our students find hope in her painting.

Tyler Hall’s ceramic mask, “The Nemean Lion,” was created as a reflective self-portrait in Ceramics 2. Along with the mask, students wrote diamante poems to analyze where they see these traits in themselves. After taking both the firefighter and EMS classes at WHS, Tyler plans to pursue a career in public service as a firefighter.

Selma Saeedosman's painting entitled, "Light" is the final piece created during her AP investigation which focuses on how Muslim women are breaking out of the stereotypes that Western society is foisting onto them. Here is a quote from her AP statement, "Stereotypes include that Muslim women are oppressed, self-segregated, and lack creativity and a voice for themselves. I experimented through portraiture and text as a design element in my work to communicate through Arabic, "Noor," which means "Light" to show the power of all Muslim women, and how they are breaking these damaging viewpoints one step at a time". Selma plans to study Computer Science at CCSU in the fall.

Windsor High School Purchase Prize: Yarizabelliz Castro Roman

This year's Windsor High School Purchase Prize selected by Mr. Parker goes to Yarizabelliz Castro Roman for her colored pencil drawing titled, "The Power of Education," a piece from her AP Art and Design sustained investigation where she explored perceptions, treatment and violence towards women in a patriarchal society. From her AP statement: "Even the most modernized countries exhibit this type of prejudice that at times go unnoticed because such treatment is seen as the norm. Such factors inspired the making of the pieces based on personal experience and how the patriarchal society could be perceived on a regular basis." Yari will be studying Art at Eastern Connecticut State University this fall.

Recommendation:

Recognize Nicholas Dennis, Tyler Hall, Selma Saeedosman and Yarizabelliz Castro Roman and their selected art pieces.

Kathleen Stoll Recognized as Windsor Public Schools 2023-2024
Educator of the Year

WINDSOR, CT (May 22, 2023) – Kathleen Stoll has been named the 2023-2024 Educator of the Year by Windsor Public Schools. She began her teaching career with the district in 1992 and has been a first grade teacher at Oliver Ellsworth (1992-2014) and later at Poquonock School (2014-Present). In addition to her teaching roles, she has worked as a summer school teacher for 15 years and a private tutor for students in grades K-12 since 2010.

Stoll holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from Keene State College and a Master of Science in Reading and Language Arts from Central Connecticut State University. She has been actively involved in various school-based teams, including the Equity Team, Data Building Team, and as a Professional Learning Community (PLC) Leader. She has also served as a science team member, providing support to fellow teachers at Oliver Ellsworth. Outside the classroom, she has contributed to the Windsor community through her involvement with Alex's Lemonade Stand and as a religious education teacher for 9 years.

Stoll's impact extends beyond the classroom, as she has provided private tutoring and mentoring to students of all ages, including adults. When asked about the impact this has had on students at Windsor Public Schools, Kathleen responded "To know that I made a difference in helping not only Elementary students, but high school students still struggling as well as adults remains one of my greatest honors in my career."

She emphasizes the importance of each child reaching their full potential and building trusting relationships with both students and their families. Kathleen recently stated, "As an educator, it is my strong belief and priority that each child reaches their full potential. I strive to reach each and every child as well as their family capitalizing on strengths, personalities, their individual learning style as well as their social emotional wellbeing. My students know that I believe in them and the power of "YET". My motto has always been, "We are a team"; myself, my student and their family. All three units must work together to foster a love of lifelong learning as well as helping each child reach their full potential as a well-rounded individual."

The Windsor Public Schools' Educator of the Year Program recognizes and honors exceptional teaching. Stoll will represent Windsor Public Schools in the State of Connecticut Teacher of the Year program. The announcement of the Educator of the Year will be made by the Windsor Board of Education at their June meeting.

Windsor Public Schools Recognizes Sandra Bailey as 2023-24 Paraeducator of the Year

WINDSOR, CT (May 22, 2023) – Windsor Public Schools is pleased to recognize Sandra Bailey of Windsor High School as the 2023-2024 Paraeducator of the Year. Bailey was selected from the school building nominees following an application process with a district selection committee. She was nominated by her colleagues at Windsor High School based on her professionalism, care, and dedication to supporting student achievement.

Bailey has been working at Windsor Public Schools for a total of 10 years. Bailey's colleagues describe her as determined, loving, dedicated, and skilled in her role as a paraeducator. She is an integral part of the WHS community and tirelessly works to meet her students' needs. Her compassion towards her students is what separates her from the pack, as she treats them with dignity and respect and most importantly she treats each day as a new start.

Bailey states, "My greatest accomplishment as a paraeducator lies within the successes of the children that I serve. My purpose on this job is to help students meet their goals in every area possible and when I see a student that I work with overcome challenges, then I see that as a great accomplishment for me. I have worked with students who have had social challenges, emotional challenges, and academic challenges, and when they overcome these challenges, I rejoice with them and affirm them because I too feel that sense of accomplishment."

Outside of her contributions within the high school, Ms. Bailey is a vital part of the greater community. For the past five years, she has rallied her colleagues to help her contribute to an outreach scholarship fund that supports underprivileged children in an inner city area in Jamaica. The group led by Bailey, collects and recycles plastic bottles and cans to generate funds for the scholarship. This initiative continues to receive support from the school community and others. The scholarship helps alleviate the financial hardships faced by these students. Bailey also volunteers at a non-profit organization that visits senior citizens in nursing homes and private residences. The organization also provides regular meals to community members and participates in the annual Walk Against Hunger to combat food insecurity.

The Windsor Public Schools' Paraeducator of the Year Program recognizes and honors paraprofessional excellence. This recipient serves as a visible and vocal representative of what is best in the profession. The program celebrates excellence by recognizing paraeducators who have inspired a love for learning in their students and who have distinguished themselves in the profession.

Bailey will now serve as Windsor Public Schools' nominee for the State of Connecticut Paraeducator of the Year. The Connecticut State Department of Education (CSDE) and the School Paraprofessional Advisory Council established the Anne Marie Murphy Paraeducator of the Year Program in 2013 to recognize one paraeducator across the state who has demonstrated exceptional skills and dedication in the performance of their job. The award is named in honor of Anne Marie Murphy, a paraeducator who was killed in the Sandy Hook shooting.

3. Audience to Visitors

Maryann Doyle, 4 Kellogg Street - Ms. Doyle spoke in support of the motion to revise the Programs of Studies as proposed. She detailed the demographics of the student population and the town overall, the history of the country, and that students should have the option to choose what courses they want to take.

Eric Wainer, 130 Palisado Avenue - Mr. Wainer spoke in support of the motion to revise the Programs of Studies as proposed. He stated the course's importance in order to move in the right direction. He prodded the Board to not give into backwards looking ideas and concepts. Mr. Wainer also encouraged the Board to address where the district should be in 10 years and to look into long-term goals.

Lance James, 304 Dunfey Lane - Mr. James spoke of working with WPS in the past through his African Drumming programs, and stated that children want to know all types of history and have conversations about where they are from. He said pride is instilled in children once they learn their history and where they are from.

Susan Robinson, 19 Laurel Avenue - Ms. Robinson expressed her support of the African American and Latinx History course. She said the course should be embedded in all U.S. history courses from K-12. She hopes the course will expand to include and encompass the many groups of other people who are part of the American family.

Ivelisse Correa, 63 Timber Lane - Ms. Correa spoke of the history of the legislation, and said we would be robbing students of a full curriculum if they didn't have the opportunity to take the course. She mentioned that students are getting most of their history lessons from TikTok, and she believes that Windsor should be at the forefront of teaching this curriculum.

Sally Grossman, 34 Remington Road - Ms. Grossman said that Windsor has such a diverse population and it is a gift to have children go through the town's school system. She said it is a waste of time to have to vote on this again as the course is already part of the curriculum and that the Town overwhelmingly supports the curriculum.

James Madison, 8 Fitzmaurice Circle - Mr. Madison expressed his thanks to WPS staff for providing him information on the course. He mentioned his concern is that the Early Global Studies course will now be optional if approved. He said students that will choose to take the African American and Latinx History course will be disadvantaged when competing in the global economy.

Gabbie Barnes, Hartford, CT - Ms. Barnes spoke of her support in the course. She said the course was not offered when she was attending WHS, and it was after taking similar courses in college that she understood the contributions of African American and Latinx in the global society. She also echoed other speakers in wanting to take the course now, and educators should be teaching this information.

Becky Jacobsen, 50 Lighthouse Hill Road - Ms. Jacobsen detailed background information on the requirement and development of the African American and Latinx course from the State of Connecticut. She also detailed information on the vote that evening, and said it was a waste of time to have to vote a second time on the course, and that she wanted the district to focus on doing the best by the students and educators.

Mr. Halek said that overall it has been a good year. There is always room for improvement. The district is, for the most part, moving in the right direction.

Mr. Wolliston believes that it's been a great year. He's very impressed with what has been done in the district. He is concerned that high accountability and low rewards may affect morale, and a more aggressive budget may be needed.

Ms. Canter appreciates the cuts to DATTCO, the SEL focus and praising of staff. She would like to see test scores increase throughout the district.

Ms. Taylor appreciates the data that has been provided to the board.

Mr. Lockhart thanked Dr. Hill for requesting this review be done in open session as a teaching opportunity for the leadership team. Nothing in the evaluation was a surprise. Dr. Hill has been consistently transparent.

Data indicates that more work needs to be done to improve the testing results. No solutions seem to be in place to improve them. More communication could be had regarding conference attendance. He read a portion of the employment contract regarding reporting to the board when attending conferences.

Ms. Klase called Point of Order and asked if this was a discussion of the contract or comments on his performance.

Mr. Lockhart called Point of Order and stated, although present in the contract, the request for documentation regarding conference attendance has never been requested of a Superintendent since 2012.

Mr. Wolliston called Point of Order said we should not be attempting to interpret the contract at this time.

Mr. Panos repeated that the issue he has is the negative response to his request and that the board has no prior knowledge of NCERT conferences.

Dr. Hill stated that he asked if a report had ever been requested of a predecessor and questioned why it was requested of him and no one else. At no time had he refused to share details of his attendance at a conference.

Mr. Furie is supportive of Dr. Hill and his experience inside the district and outside of the community. His connections to the community and his work on the budget have been impressive.
