Re: Modified Publisher Quote for ELA Adoption

The costs for the curriculum that was presented earlier to the board was inaccurate because it was missing the six-year grammar workbook subscription for the secondary program, myPerspectives by Savvas Learning Company. The formal quote with the additional materials costs $10,410.50 more than the prior quote. This brings the total for just the curriculum to $104,459.50. When I presented the quote to Northwest Textbook Depository, the shipping costs were significantly less than what is quoted by the publishing company. Instead of $10,136.61, Northwest Textbook Depository will charge us $3,760.54 which is a saving of $6376.07. These savings would occur upon our purchase, but I wanted to make sure the school board directors were aware of the savings.

The cost increase caused us to review our training plan to develop a sustainable and more cost-effective method for ensuring that our students get the most out of this curriculum over the life of its adoption. Instead of hiring the publisher to provide three days of on-site coaching, training, modeling, and support, we will work with ESD curriculum and instruction experts and the new teacher mentor program to do the same services during shorter, more frequent sessions. The new plan will reduce our initial training costs by $6,800. Our local resources will support our teachers as they grow their capacity to fully implement this rich curriculum over the next several years. The ESD staff and our new teacher mentor can provide more consistent feedback and guidance than the publishing company trainers can. We can build a process of systematic supports for our teachers that will really develop a strong English language arts program K-12 and significantly reduce potential learning loss should we have staff turnover in the future.

Sincerely,

Lori Greenfield

Re: ELA Curriculum Adoption

Attached is a recommendation from Lori Greenfield – Curriculum Coordinator to adopt a K-12 English Language Arts (ELA) curriculum. This adoption is 12 years overdue and is essential to support our staff and students with a core academic priority area. The district has the funding set aside in the 2022-23 SIA Grant that is designed to support school improvement. The district will be providing targeted professional development for staff throughout the 2023-24 school year to ensure proper staff support and consistency of implementation utilizing highly qualified curriculum authorities. I fully support this recommendation for adoption.
