Re: New Disclosure Requirements

Effective January 1, if you (1) meet a new definition of "local government officer" and (2) have a employment or business relationship with a person or vendor who does business with your school district, you are required to complete a "Local Government Officer Conflicts Disclosure Statement" (Form CIS) and file the disclosure with the district's records administrator. (House Bill 914 added new provisions to the Local Government Code, Chapter 176.) The disclosure statement is designed to record any employment or business relationship a local government officer may have with a person or vendor.

The following information is designed to help board members and designated educators understand this new requirement.

1. What is a conflicts disclosure statement?

A form designed to record any employment or business relationship a local government officer may have with a person or vendor doing business with the school district. The form is available on the Ethics Commission web site, www.ethics.state.tx.us

2. Who is a "local government officer?"

A local government officer is defined as:

- member of the governing body
- director
- superintendent
- administrator
- president
- other person designated as the executive officer of the local governmental entity

3. Are all "local government officers" required to file the conflicts disclosure statements?

No. The statement must be filed (a) by a "local government officer," if

- a vendor or other person has contracted with or is considering doing business with the district and the vendor has an employment or other business relationship with the local government officer or family member (related in the first degree), resulting in

- the officer or family member receiving taxable income OR
- if the vendor has given to the officer or family member gift(s) with an aggregate value of more than $250 in a 12 month period. (“Gifts” exclude food, lodging, transportation, or entertainment accepted as a guest.)

4. What is the time frame that the disclosure form must be completed?

“Local government officers” must complete a conflicts disclosure statement by 5:00 p.m. on the seventh business day after the date on which the officer becomes aware that:

- he/she has a employment or other business relationship with a vendor or other person doing business with the school district

5. Where is this form filed?

The disclosure statement is filed with the “records administrator” of the local governmental entity, i.e., the superintendent or other person responsible for maintaining the records of the local governmental entity.

6. How often must I update this disclosure statement?

The statement must be filed by September 1st of each year that the local governmental officer has a relationship or affiliation with person doing business with the school district.

7. What are there penalties if this form is not completed?

The district “may reprimand, suspend, or terminate the employment of an employee who fails to comply with a requirement adopted under this section.” There are also criminal sanctions available (Class C misdemeanor) for knowingly violating the new disclosure requirements.

8. Do we need to amend our board policy?

Yes. These changes will be updated by TASB Policy Service in Update 77.

9. Is there more?

Yes. The law includes additional requirements for vendors. More information is available on the Ethics Commission web site, www.ethics.state.tx.us. The text of HB 914 may be found at www.capitol.state.tx.us

Client Alert

December 2, 2005

The Third Time is a Charm

In an effort to bring clarity and simplicity to a complex issue, we over/understated the requirements for trustees and superintendents in our last communication about the implementation of H. B. 914, conflicts disclosure and vendor questionnaire.

The receipt of $250 in gifts from a vendor is not the ONLY circumstance under which trustees and superintendents must file the conflicts disclosure. That form must also be completed any time a vendor has contracted with the district OR the district is "considering doing business" with a vendor AND the vendor has an employment or other business relationship with the trustee or superintendent that results in the trustee or superintendent or a family member within the first degree receiving taxable income from the vendor.

While the district does not have any requirement under the statute to affirmatively inform vendors of their responsibilities to file the conflicts questionnaire, because the notion of "seeking a contract with the district" is incredibly vague, superintendents would be well-advised to ask any/every vendor that approaches them whether they have filed the questionnaire.

Finally, there is nothing in the statute related to void contracts; however, the district is always entitled to include a provision in all of its purchasing contracts that the contract will be void if the vendor has not filed the required conflicts questionnaire within the time stated in the law.

This new statute promises to be a headache for everyone and a "gotcha" for school personnel. It contains very vague terms: what is an "affiliation" that the vendor must disclose in relation to a trustee or superintendent? What is required to be "seeking a contract" with the school district?

CLOSED MEETING

- A. Discussion Regarding Personnel Appointment, Employment, Evaluation, Reassignment, Duties, Discipline, Dismissal, Complaint, or Charges (If Needed)
- B. Confer with Employees of the School District to Receive Information or to Ask Questions (If Needed)
- C. Discussion Regarding Student Discipline (If Needed)
- D. Consultation with District's Attorney (If Needed)
